World Depopulation and Slavery - Part I

Genesis 1:28, "And God blessed them, and said, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth'."

Daniel 7:25, "The beast shall blaspheme the most High, and harass the Hebrew saints (to be), and try to change the sacred seasons (that type the dispensations) and the Law: and the elect Israelites will under his power until the first three and a half years of Daniel's Seventieth Week are fulfilled" (Revelation 13:1-6).

This takes place after the close of the Gentile dispensation when Satan has been cast out from heaven and is incarnate in the Pope of Rome ruling one world government, introducing one world economy and eventually FORCING one world religion which will be Babylonian false Christianity against the faith, forcing the mark of the beast.

The Times of the Gentiles commenced when Babylon took Jerusalem captive. Nebuchadnezzar later enforced worship to the image of a holy man, the prophet Daniel (Daniel 3). The times of the Gentiles end with Mystery Babylon ruling over the whole world and enforcing worship to the image of a supposedly holy man, seated on "the sides of the north" in Jerusalem: the incarnate Pope (Daniel 9:27b; Revelation 13:11-18; Isaiah 14:12-14).

We are on the precipice of the close of the Gentile dispensation and fulfillment of Ezekiel 38 and 39. The powers that be have very few moves they need to make before they are in a position to try to force a New World Order.

Our subject tonight is "World Depopulation." You must be have noticed how the plans of those who would rule the world become the policies of the UN and Western governments and are imposed upon all nations through government and non-government organizations (NGOs). But do you know that their intent is to massively reduce world population, and return the bulk of survivors to serfdom in a new Dark Age?

They propose reducing world population to two billion persons, and as their deadline for achieving this goal has arrived, interesting times lie ahead. Those who are aware will recognize these pogroms, conducted by your own government against you, and paid for by your tax dollars, variously described in your daily news.

Winston Churchill said, "From the days of Spatracus-Weishaupt, to those of Karl Marx (Mordecai), to those of Trotsky (Bronstein) . . . this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development and envious malevolence, and impossible equality has been steadily growing. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the nineteenth century, and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become the undisputed masters of that enormous empire" (Sunday Illustrated Herald, London, February 8, 1920). He wrote that before he became beholden to the Zionists.

Churchill knew of "this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization" and identified it with the international capitalism controlling the self-styled Jews who invaded Russia from New York City in 1917, imposing Communism which is a tool of these elite capitalists. Churchill knew this self-proclaimed "chosen people" "against whom the Lord has indignation forever" (Malachi 1:4) had long-term plans for world rule dating to atleast the previous century. Churchill knew their evil scheme was to be accomplished "on the basis of arrested development."

The resort to slavery, the lowering of wages, reduction of infrastructure development and an emphasis upon cheap, unskilled labor, have the effect of looting the preconditions of continued production at existing per capita levels. Increased working hours, decreasing investment in basic economic infrastructure and other apparent cost reduction measures, impoverish not only the victims of such a cheap labor policy, but ruin the economy of the nation foolish enough to tolerate such practices (Alexander Hamilton, December 1791 Report to the US Congress "On the Subject of Manufactures.") Two hundred years later it is government policy at the instigation of the hidden hand of parallel government.

Today this evil force is very close to bringing-in their New World Order (NWO) and one world government. They have achieved it as foretold in Isaiah 14:12, by "weakening the goiim or Gentiles, and humbling them level with the ground." By their power over the root of all evil, the love of money, they have divided and conquered every nation, tribe and tongue.

Meyer Amschel Rothschild of Germany once said: "Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws . . ." He said "enforced unemployment and hunger, imposed on the masses because of the power we have to create shortages of food, will create the RIGHT of Capital to rule more surely than it was given to the real aristocracy."

Speaking of world government Amschel Rothschild said, "It will be necessary to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of such colossal riches that even the largest fortunes of the goiim will depend on us to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of their governments ON THE DAY AFTER THE GREAT POLITICAL SMASH."

Well did Churchill know Rothschild's plan for "the reconstitution of society" to serfdom by retarding industry and encouraging debt.

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is the front organization and debt collector for Rothschild's heirs and kinsmen whom Brother Branham called "Wall Street crooks." They appear to have the game well and truly "sewn-up" with all angles covered. Take disarmament for example, the ultimate object of disarming people and sovereign nations is to ensure there can be no debt repudiation. Once there is a UN army and world taxation system, no nation will be allowed to say “No” to the bank. If the UN also gets a nuclear monopoly, all who oppose may be threatened with annihilation to boot.

We’re witnessing the looting of national wealth and genocide or a depopulation of the nations that once formed the USSR. Make no mistake, this is a part of the game-plan of those lovely people from the City of London who gave us Communism, Nazism, two world wars, the League and United Nations, AIDS, etc., and to whom the destruction of a nation means less than the death of one sparrow.

This exercise will break the Western world financially and exhaust it morally. It will revive the Communist empire to utterly destroy Christendom in behalf of those who consider themselves to be the world Messianic force to rule humanity as if we were so many human cattle (Talmud, Sanhedrin 98b and footnotes). Sovereignty over the assets of nations is being transferred from their citizens through deregulated markets and currencies to the international bankers.

Western-style “democracy” today is no more than a media campaign aimed at destroying belief in the moral person on which social cohesion is built. Unclean people, dysfunctional lifestyles and cultures of selected minorities are promoted whilst decency, established ideals and intelligent good is censored. Who controls our media? Certainly not Christians.

The usual instruments of destabilization of nations are pleas for human rights, environment, indigenism, democracy, campaigns for an “open” economy and the problems of unemployment and crime created by such measures. The examples of Russia and Indonesia have shown China how “democracy” destroys nations.

Recent US and UK attacks upon the Sudan and Iraq orchestrated by the City of London is swelling the anti-US tide and re-established the “Ugly American” image in a deliberate ploy by these would-be masters of the world to create World War III between the Muslim people, the kings of the East, and Russia, against the Political Zionists—Israel, USA, UK and NATO forces.

China’s preferred ally in establishing a just economic order, an orderly exchange-rate mechanism, the elimination of financial and economic weapons of mass destruction and the jailing of the perpetrators of economic and financial crimes against humanity, is the US. And she has made many overtures to the US administration.

But with the hard-pressed US Presidency, drawn into a Gulf War by the City of London and their Wall Street partners, Al Gore’s rants about “democracy and human rights” (when the US has more prisoners incarcerated than even China, a nation four times its population) -- China has been forced into the arms of its Asian neighbors with whom she may be seen to be forming a strategic alliance to see it through the coming global chaos. A chaos caused by an imminent and complete collapse of the global financial system.

Jiang Zemin's diplomacy is drawing economically battered but industrially productive Japan, the scientific, technological and industrial potential of Russia, and India (now repaying its old debt to Russia) into an Asian economic bloc.

Both Russia and Indonesia (where 30% of the population is receiving less than one dollar a week to live on) have found that IMF conditionalities are aimed at the destruction of national economies (and forced everyone into buying American dollars, creating an all-time high for the Dow Jones). Japan discovered that the opening of her markets has given Moody's Investor Service the power to trigger financial chaos. Her lending to Malaysia and Indonesia is indicative of a growing trend to a strategic alliance within an "Asian productive triangle."

In Revelation 16:12, Jesus prophesied how the apostasy of the once Christian West would prepare the way for the "kings of the East." Like Babylon, the West has become materially rich and in need of nothing, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. We're living in a stupefied unreality of drugs, drunkenness and debt, our minds brainwashed by the sub-sewer Talmudic filth of Hollywood Brother Branham always condemned. Even the President of the world's most powerful (once Christian) nation is a cocaine-sniffing dope-head, implicated in drug importation through Mena Air Force Base amongst other "inappropriate" activities.

The Bible tells us that God has a definite, deliberate perfect and unchangeable PLAN. It also informs us Satan has a COUNTER-plan. Now God can work only through men and woman who believe and have a clear understanding of the Plan in His unchanging Word. So without understanding it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6).

History is either: 1) accidental, or 2), the outcome of meticulous planning toward the accomplishment of long-term objectives. People who believe the chaos theory of history won't seek understanding as they see their own lives and the lives of nations as a series of random events without any control from the top.

History is the record of past events. In the Light of Bible faith, it is the record of many battles in the 6,000-year-old war between God and Satan that portrays the vessels of God's Word overcoming the enemy and bringing the ultimate purpose of God to realization. And we don't have long to go now.

God can only use men and women who can receive the faith and who yield themselves, soul, spirit and body, in order that His Word may live through them (Colossians 3:3). Christians cannot believe the theory that history is a series of accidental unrelated events and we recognize the just as the Holy Spirit is helpless until He finds someone who will yield to Him, Satan is powerless until he finds someone willing to yield to him. Thus we sing "Yield not to temptation, for yielding is sin."

Whilst current history often appears episodic, it is actually in the culminating stages of a very long-term policy that is moving internationally, but visible only in the long perspective of time. Thus to identify policy in history, one must recognize individual events as LINKS in a PARTICULAR chain—a chain beginning somewhere in the past and extending into the future. When we recognize the chain, we can follow it to the core of intent.

Life, no doubt, is full of the accidental; but it is full as well of the consequences of policies—policies which may be unrelated, related or opposed, and short in duration or long-term. A short-term policy may be defined as one which exists within the span of a generation, and a long-term policy as one which transcends the generations. Long-term policies are those of organizations' and the most fundamental of such policies is survival of the organization as such, be it a family, a nation, or an institution. Another such policy is the extension of the influence of the organization, whether by example, precept, or power. Conversely, the existence of long-term policies denotes the existence of the ORGANIZATIONS which sustain them.

The difference between God and the enemy is that God's Plan is infallible. It's been published openly to all with eyes to see and faith to comprehend. The Bible foretells and history unfolds the manifold events planned in secret by people with power, influence, information and ambition disproportionate to their character and to the rest of society.

These people have yielded themselves as Satan's executive officers to bring-in the totalitarian one world government he offered Jesus in exchange for worship (Matthew 4:8-9; Revelation 13:1-18; 21:10; Isaiah 14:13). It is imperative we recognize that "hidden hands" are behind the scenes, manipulating the workings of nations.

Visit Conspiracy Scholar's Nook and also the Books Area of our Church Site where you will find a growing resource for the edification of Christ's Bride, exposing the plans and activities of Satan's earthly executives. You will be able to benefit from eight years work Brother Eric has invested compiling a chronology identifying these men with their membership in five clandestine organizations working toward one world government. These are the Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission, Bilderbergers, Rhodes Scholars, Skull and Bones, and Freemasons. These and other groups are inter-related. Eric is seeking to co-operate with researchers of The Royal Institute of International Affairs, Fabian Society, and Vatican.

Now we realize that Rome will ultimately rule the coming one world government, then she will be destroyed by Communism. Her enemy has a long-term strategy that was revealed by the Russian delegate to the UN, Dimitri Manuilsky, in 1950. His generation is long-gone, but his words are coming to pass NOW.

Manuilsky spoke of "launching the most spectacular peace movement on record." The object of which was to "put the bourgeoisie to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record . . . The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to join in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we will smash them with our clenched fist."

NATO Commander, Brigadier W.F.K. Thompson stated "the ideological content of Marxism will continue to be eroded so that the two systems of society will gradually become more and more compatible" which is precisely what Manuilsky laid down. The element of surprise will emerge when the Eastern satellites turn out, after all, still to be in the control of hard-line Communists, while at the present they are being administered to the West as increasing doses of hypnotics (South Africa Daily Express, April 19, 1968).

This "peace offensive" was launched by Khrushchev in 1956, the year Brother Branham declared America had her last chance to repent. But it passed largely unnoticed because of the dramatic diversion provided by de-Stalinisation. The vital importance of Khrushchev's speech at the Twentieth Party Congress was that it inaugurated the STRATEGY of "peaceful co-existence" as the means of achieving world-wide Communist dictatorship. Thus the final take-over of the entire world by the Communists will succeed through the element of surprise—an objective which could not be gained by a conventional military confrontation.

The Communist strategy has put the West to sleep, and we're in bed with them. Christians know the prophet Amos taught that no two can walk together except they be agreed in the faith. This is why we are forbidden to join with the Communists, Catholics, Jews, Muslims, or any individual or group who is not born again.

Almost the whole world is Communist in its thinking, and political parties of all persuasions are Communist in their policies. What is globalization and the concept of one world government but the centralization of control by an all-powerful State. It is Communist doctrine. What is multi-culturalism but multi-racialism under another name espousing the unscriptural notion of Thomas Jefferson that "all men are created equal." Communism! Equality and gender mixing, introducing women into the Forces, co-education, equal employment opportunities, cross-dressing in clothes that pertain to a man, homosexuality etc., are all manifestations of the spirit of Communism. Jesus Christ called the seventh and last Church Age "Communist." The Greek word is Laodicea which means "people's rights."

Communism is a spirit, the spirit of anarchy; of rebellion against authority. Paul describes its manifestation in II Timothy 3 and 4 where he says that after the opening of the Seven Seals, "men will love only themselves, money and material possessions, becoming proud and boastful, blasphemers, disobedient, ungrateful to their parents, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, preferring good times to worshiping God . . . for there's coming a time when they won't listen to sound doctrine, but gather around themselves teachers who'll tell them the things they want to hear." People's rights.

Communism has peacefully taken control of people's minds, largely through brainwashing in our corrupt education system, churches and media. But it will not peacefully take control of our backyards.

As Nebuchadnezzar was a move of God to destroy apostate Israel, so is Communism a move of God to destroy the false church. It can't take-over until the Roman church has ruled the world for the first three and a half years of Daniel's Seventieth Week, following the close of the Gentile dispensation. Nevertheless, there will be a failed attempt by Russia to control the world before the appointed time. That is, a failed attempt to take over the United States of America in the form of an invasion.

Brother Branham told us Russia will attack and invade the United States, soon after Los Angeles and 1500x3-400 miles of California sink under the ocean, marking the end of the Gentile dispensation. This may be six months after the Millennium Bug or Y2K computer problem renders US defense capacity on a par with the Boy Scouts. I expect Russian troops will then be welcomed to fly in aid after the earthquake. They'll deliver aid, alright. The Prophet said they'll invade America, looting homes and stores, and raping the womenfolk. They'll have no better opportunity for success.

America's armed forces are powerful because of their technological superiority but they are not large. The Department of Defense says they will not be Y2K-compliant until 2009. Regular readers of this Newsletter know the USDOD admits to the unreliability and certain unserviceability of many of their weapons systems come January 1, 2000. At risk are intelligence-gathering, surveillance, logistics, mobilization, and combat effectiveness.

In April 1966, the USDOD awarded Boeing a US$1.2 billion contract to rectify the Y2K problem on their satellite Global Positioning System (GPS). The system will be switched off from August 22, 1999 to December 31, 1999. In the West, aircraft, ships, missiles and smart bombs use the GPS for telecommunications and navigation. So when the GPS goes down in August, US missile defenses will also be down. NATO ICBMs have also been converted to GPS and will be out of service. This may explain their present unprovoked attacks upon Iraq. Ironically, a handful of embedded chips in these satellites might prevent the GPS from coming back on-line.

A system of navigation based on earth's magnetic field was used for thirty-years by the US military. It is still in use by Russia and is not affected by Y2K. What a window of opportunity for an invasion, particularly after the earthquake cripples the nation.

Jack Brock of the General Accounting Office (GAO) has said, "Time is running out to correct US Navy systems that could malfunction or produce incorrect information when the year 2000 is encountered during automated data processing. The impact of these failures could be widespread, costly and potentially debilitating to important Navy operations worldwide."

The GAO reported that 120 of the Army's 376 mission-critical automated information and embedded weapons systems still need Year 2000 reprogramming. And as of February 1998, 12,120 -- nearly two- thirds—of the Army's 19,731 non mission-critical systems still required Year 2000 fixes.

America could lose its military superiority and the ability to quickly retaliate. If the actions of Russia are uncertain, what about China, North Korea, Iran, Iraq and Libya? The kings of the East! And how will America thwart terrorists with their increasing capability to use weapons of mass distribution?

Graham Allison, Jr. (BB/CFR/TC), of Harvard University, Advisory Board member for the Center for National Policy and former Council of Foreign Relations (CFR) Director, said: "There are suitcase-style nuclear weapons in the former Soviet union. Some criminal elements in Russia, not the Russian government itself . . . would steal nuclear weapons, would sell them to a terrorist group," he said, (showing photo of a Hamas leader in wheel chair). "The weapons would then be brought to an American city and would be used in a terrorist fashion. And God forbid, I believe that it is something we unfortunately will live to see."

This isn't fearmongering—its a fact. Welcome to the year 2000.

Daniel 2 and 7-12 as well as Revelation 13 and 17 instruct us that the end of this world order will be characterized by a one-world government, a one-world economy and a one-world religion. But some catalyst will be needed to introduce these conditions. Throughout history mankind has had regional catastrophes—earthquakes, hurricanes, volcanoes, plagues and famine. Potentially we have Y2K which is global, and its man's doing.

Brother Branham spoke about scientists in our day hybreeding God's Word (nature) in their laboratories and trying to disprove God in their Bible schools, making Satan the god of this evil age. And he said that where their medicines and hybrid food are not killing us, nervous and psychological disorders are. Science—reasoning against the laws of God—is hybreeding His Word.

Over the last fifty years, science has advanced such that learning has become the god that we worship. Lust for knowledge against the Word caused Eve to fall in the Garden and Paul taught that because men in this last day do not love God's Word above their necessary meat, God would send them a strong delusion, making them believe the same lie Satan told Eve—promoting God's permissive will. Satan is the sum of wisdom and beauty and the god of this evil age worshipped today as science and intellectual reasoning. And isn't the computer's artificial intelligence the incarnation of science?

Computer science has made these spectacular advances possible. But the computer is only as accurate as the information finite man has programmed into its hardware and software. I believe Y2K is a very real problem whose consequences were NOT maliciously predetermined but which are presently being factored into strategies serving the purposes of rival groups of godless men who would rule this world.

As discussed on previous occasions, the main contenders are the Vatican, international bankers and Communism. Communism is a creature of the international bankers although presently it may be a loose gun, somewhat independent of its Capitalist patrons.

I'm going to read you a letter from Rumania. Rumania is a testing ground where the elites can experiment upon human guinea pigs. So was Vietnam. Depopulation is their game, and don't think they're not conducting experiments with you—in some way.

Do you have fluordated water supplies? Fluoride is rat poison. An unpublicized "statutory rule 69" in the May 1970 Government Gazette says that fluoride treated water can be used in food and drug manufacturing and set a maximum fluoride level of 1ppm (which is toxic). Sound nourishing? Fluoride is a hypnotic drug that accumulates in the body, producing schizophrenia. It was used in Russian prison camps and is harmful to dental health. The real purpose behind water fluoridation is to reduce the resistance of the masses to domination and control, and loss of liberty. (Nobel Prize winner Dr. Linus Pauling, Chairman of the International Society for Research on Nutrition and Vital Substances, Melbourne Age, February 13, 1968; Fluoridation and Lawlessness, Committee for Mental Health and National Security, Henwood and Dancey, Pty. Ltd., Geelong).

Modern fuels? Military jets use a fuel called JP-8+100. Analysis by an independent laboratory revealed two toxic substances: (1) Ethlyene di bromide which causes liver damage, lung and skin Cancer and lowers the immune system by depleting the body of B vitamins and zinc; and (2), zinc chloride. I wonder how these chemicals react with methyl tert butyl ether (MTBE), added to the deadly unleaded gas in your family car?

Lead from leaded petrol is, after combustion, relatively harmless, but the ingredients in unleaded petrol, dimethylbenzene, toluene, mesitylene, xylene and benzene, are all declared carcinogens and far more dangerous. Catalytic converters don't work til' they read 400 degrees. And remember, cars fitted with anti-pollution gear are clean for about one year or 50,000KM. The British National Society for Clean Air no longer supports unleaded petrol.

Blood tests show lead levels to have gradually decreased since the '30's despite increasing use of leaded fuel. This has followed the decreased use of pewter, lead solder in food cans, and replacement of lead water pipes (Thomas C. Maliha ispypi@mail.pouch.com).

Why then do political greenies and mass media support lies, and claim removal of lead from motor fuel as an environmental victory? According to Shirley Scheibla, Washington editor of Barron's, "the gadgets applied to our cars by the EPA now result in the use of 300,000 extra barrels of gasoline a day; by 1980 the controls will require the consumption of an added two million gallons of gasoline per day. Meanwhile, federally required reduction of lead in gasoline has reduced fuel efficiency by another twenty percent. And no two experts seem to agree on whether the required gadgetry actually decreases pollution. Some think that the net effect is an increase" (Gary Allen, The Rockefeller File, p.144).

The Greenies are funded by Rockefeller, Lord Melchett, the heir of the Imperial Chemical Industries fortune and other oil interests who wish to promote the consumption of the fossil fuels they control, rather than clean nuclear energy they do not control. Do a little research on "Greenpeace" and you'll find its not an NGO dedicated to protecting the environment, but a cover for diverting millions, for laundering money, and for suborning politicians. There is no public accounting for a penny of the US$200 million per year that pass through its secret accounts (EIR, May 20, 1994).

Speaking of depopulation, were you aware that the World Health Organization (WHO) and USDOD designed and distributed AIDS? Here's an excerpt from the BULLETIN OF THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION - Vol. 47 No. 2 of 1972. On page 259, under Recommendations (3), it states: "An attempt should be made to ascertain whether viruses can in fact exert selective effects on immune function, e.g., by depressing 7S versus 19S antibody, or by affecting T cell function as opposed to B cell function (Allison et al., 1971). The possibility should also be looked into that the immune response to the virus may itself be impaired if the infecting virus damages more or less selectively the Cells responding to the viral antigens.

If this proves to be the case, virus induced immunodepression might be highly instrumental in prolonging certain virus infections, such as murine leukaemia, hepatitis, sub-acute sclerosing panencephalitis, or infections caused by LDV, LCMV, or ADV."

This sounds more like biological warfare than medicine. And it is, AIDS blew up wherever WHO had been "immunizing" against smallpox. Africa is being depopulated by AIDS.

Refrigerants without CFC's, multiculturalism, deregulation of currencies and international trade, and the removal of protective tariffs, are all part of the depopulation game in which you and I are participants. Its being played to the death. . . maybe yours.

I'd like to read you a letter received from subscribers to Bible Believers' Newsletter who work in Rumania. "In 1990 and 1991 the coal miners came to Bucharest . . . in helmets and fatigues, with axes and clubs in clenched fists to put down any opposition. They beat the life out of any "intellectual-looking" person they met. Several innocent citizens were killed and many injured. The coal miners are a politically powerful group who are striking to demand higher wages. The government doesn't know what do about them, but tomorrow they'll probably make their appearance in Bucharest. Please pray there will be no injuries. Rumania is a nation in crisis. On the streets, dogs are competing with begging children and the elderly for charity. And because conditions are so harsh, the public is in sympathy with the miners."

Their follow-up letter says, "The government talked the miners into going home . . . with the help of tanks, guns, tear gas and clubs. They were protesting the closure of mines and loss of jobs. Many Rumanians were sympathizing with the coal miners rebellion because they too are tired of eating bread and soup bones."

Hey! This is the "Level playing field" of the proposed NWO. This is why unionization is out and individual contracts are in. This is depopulation by reducing investment and development.

How will it be in YOUR cities when YOUR miners are FORCED to work for the same wages paid to coal miners in Brazil, in China, or be unemployed when Social Security payments are eliminated and the investment portfolios of superannuation and mutual funds have sunk so low they can't afford to liquidate their situation?

"Hey buddy, can you spare me a dime?"

A third letter asked, "Do you know why the coal mines were shut down? Because the IMF told them they had to close all "unproductive" . . . mines . . . all 40 of them. They say it is cheaper to IMPORT coal from other countries with higher wages . . . and pay high transportation costs? Incredulous. And so in Romania, we have the tastless imported vegetables from Holland and they have the tasty, homegrown vegetables from Romania. And the wheat farmers had to let their crops go to waste because the government was importing wheat from Hungary . . . it was cheaper, they said."

Reading on. "The Associated Press (AP) had a strange article about Rumania concerning what happened on Christmas day. They said all over Rumania and especially in Bucharest people were going to the hospital with severe stomach pains from too much indulging of Christmas dinner. They said 3500 were hospitalized in Bucharest alone. They didn't tell the complete story, and made it sound like the people here had plenty of food and made pigs of themselves—at least on Christmas day. The reason so many were ill was because they had had so little food for so long—when they had a good meal . . . it made them sick. Also, the quality of food is so poor for some . . . they became ill. Staying alive here (and in Russia) means selling possessions, stocking the shelves with home-canned cabbage, and relying on a network of personal ties for the rest."

"We had Leonard, the baby of Mihaela and Laurentiu (street kids on inhalants) for 10 days and his parents took him back, thinking they could take care of him with the help of her mother. However, her mother lives in a room with 13 people . . . no electricity and, of course, little food. All the adults smoke and Leonard - because of the history of his parents and also this environment at her parents—developed acute bronchitis. They were totally unable to take care of him and he became very ill. So, we have Leonard back and are honored to be able to help him get a good start in life. Please pray that his little lungs will heal and that he won't have any damage due to his parents lifestyle."

The follow-up letter says, "Leonard will have to be hospitalized tomorrow. He has acute pneumonia. Please pray for him, his lungs are so weak."

I'm not reading this to make you cry. I'm trying to show you that the SAME foreign people who control Rumania and the other Soviet satellite countries own the sucker in the White House, and their people staff his Administration. They control England, Australia and most of the world. This hidden hand or parallel government will reduce us all to these living conditions. They are doing so now. Hence our growing unemployment and insurmountable debt.

One more paragraph.

"MOLDOVA -- 27 below 0 Celsius. Ron (her husband) is currently in Moldova, having evangelistic meetings in a community where 650 blind people live. They all know Braille and are requesting Scriptures and books in Braille . . . so we have quite a task to provide them with what they want. He also visited Viorica and she said it was so cold at school, they tried exercising every hour or so to try to get warm. He said the blind people haven't received their pensions for months and everyone there is having such a hard time. Pray for these precious people."

Georgetown University demographer, Dr. Murray Feshbach said on December 9, 1997, "Because of IMF conditionalities 20 million people in Eastern Europe had died from economic causes. A planned disintegration of productive capacity has led to the destruction of medical infrastructure. Diseases which are easily cured are creating permanent damage, malformations, heart disease, mental impairment, which cannot be cured, for lack of medicine."

"75% of pregnant women have serious illnesses during pregnancy, and only 37.6% of newborns do not suffer complications in the birth process or postpartum period. Anemia in pregnant women has increased by 300%. Only 10% of secondary school students have "normal" health, and 50% of prisoners are infected with TB" (The Strategy, March, 1998).

Think on these things as you make yourselves ready for the close of grace and the manifestation of the Sons of God (Revelation 19:7). bb990201.htm

World Depopulation and Slavery - Part II

Paul taught that even in his day, the spirit of lawlessness was at work among the believers but that it would be restrained until the Church is translated. John described this restraint symbolized in Revelation 10 where the Lord Himself descended from heaven with a "shout," indicting all man-made religious systems and placing judgment on the beast from the sea and its image from the earth, keeping them from uniting until the translation of the living Bride (I Thessalonians 4:16; II Thessalonians 2:6-8).

In II Timothy 3 and 4, Paul foretold the lawlessness that would be in our day after the opening of the Seven Seals. Of unfaithfulness in marriage, disobedient, feral children, intellectual ministers, and congregations who put TV before hearing the Word of God.

Brother Branham compared this lawlessness of the church people who had Paul arrested and sent to Rome with the coming fierceness of the denominational church people after the Seventh Trump. He said, "If it wasn't for the Constitution of the United States, you'd see the same thing today. That's right! Just wait till she's broke a little bit more" (COD, 145:201).

It's not just the US Constitution that's broken, the constitutions of other nations have also been abrogated by dishonorable men who serve the parallel non-elected government and rule by the power of usury.

Yes sir! We're not ruled by our lawful governments but by the money power who own us body and spirit. Once that Seventh Trumpet sounds my Brother and Sister, they'll be demanding our soul!

But if you've received the Message William Branham introduced, not the dead letter, but Christ IN you, not one hair of your head will suffer harm, and though the Bride of Christ will be a hunted and persecuted little group, that too is for your good. It is for you to realize who you really are; that Christ is in you, and that you can do the greater works.

Now, let's read some Scripture. Luke 6:35-36, "Love your enemies and do them favors; lend, hoping for no favors in return; and your reward shall be great for you shall be the children of the Lord: Who is kind to the unthankful and to the wicked and selfish. So be compassionate, as your Father also is merciful." That's the One we must be identified with. We must have His nature living in us.

Christians are to lend as an act of goodwill, but not foolishly, and to be content with return of principal, or equivalent service as recompense plus compensation for any costs involved in default. Christians are commanded not to charge interest on loans.

With usury, the lender strives only after gain, the complete risk falls on the borrower, and the community is impoverished. Usury is foolishness, as "interest," whether in coin or kind is nonexistent substance that must be borrowed from within the community. Only the lender and the lawyers stand to gain. And as we shall see, the lender, and often the lawyer also, do not belong in the community.

Now, Deuteronomy 23:20, "Unto a stranger (nokri) you may lend upon usury; but to your brother (or kindred race) you shall not lend upon usury: that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you do in the Promised Land." That is the place of Israel's rest. Any Israelite outside the Land is outside the Covenant and can't keep his sabbath. The Christian's rest is in the PRESENT Truth—what Jesus is doing NOW.

That word "stranger" is "nokriy" and covers everything of alien or foreign character, regardless of the place of residence, and is defined by the context in which it appears. It embraces the Canaanites, who descended from Ham's incestuous behavior, and the Moabites and Ammonites who descended from Lot's cohabitation with his own daughters. These nokri were strictly taboo with no rights or privileges in the Israel community. Their status was that of a bastard - Hebrew: mamser, meaning one of mixed or spurious origins—being specifically prevented by Divine Decree from entering the congregation of the Lord even to his tenth generation (Deuteronomy 23:2-3). That is, never! The Serpent's seed are nokri.

Because the (once Christian) West has wandered so far from God's Word, the nokri loan to us at interest. We obey situational ethics and not the unchanging Law of God's Word. With situational ethics, the end justifies the means, and we have made ourselves servants of sin and of the nokri. God placed enmity between Adam's race and these nokri, and we are not to associate with them. Today they are our masters although they never do anything in their own name, but always work under a different name and in a different occupation. We fall for their deceit because God has allowed us to become blinded by our unbelief.

Usury has become the dominant force in the world. People imagine the only money in the world is notes and coin—legal tender. But currency represents less than 5% of all the money in circulation. Most money in circulation is non-existent, created by banks and financial institutions at the stroke of a pen. It is no more than an entry in the ledger secured by an enforceable promise to pay.

Most transactions are done by cheque or credit card. That money is electronic and was never issued. But if you wish to borrow some of this created money, you will have to pay interest and charges.

Are you aware that banks don't lend money deposited with them? No, that is just small change enabling them to pay cash to those who need it. If all the depositors of a large city head office of the bank were to withdraw all their funds, they might exceed the sum of all issued currency. Most money is no more than a bookkeeping entry which is why central banks world-wide are presently printing billions of dollars so branch banks will be able to pay customers cash when they realize Y2K is likely to close the banking system. Because of the scarcity of issued currency, banks are restricting the amount of cash customers can withdraw without prior notice.

Fixed deposits are a plausible veil to hide credit creation. Every bank loan or overdraft is a creation of new money out of thin air. That money has no existence apart from the entries in the ledger while every repayment of bank credit cancels that money out of existence.

As national money systems are no longer backed by gold or silver, and have been deregulated, Rothschild agents, like George Soros, can manipulate and speculate on currencies, and the IMF and WB can impose conditionalities guaranteed to destroy those economies. Can you see their game? Abraham Lincoln's understanding of the money game brought his death at the hands of the Rothschilds. Exporting goods of greater value than imports is certain to impoverish a nation. What are you earning in exchange? Glass beads and mirrors like the savages on Manhattan Island? Or computer entries in a ledger like the ignoramuses in Sydney, Vancouver, or Jo'berg?

"Practically all the money in the community is an entry in a ledger and began its life as an interest-bearing debt to the banks. The amount of money in existence varies only with the action of the banks in increasing or decreasing deposits and bank purchases. Every loan, overdraft or bank purchase creates a deposit, and every repayment of a loan, overdraft or bank sale destroys a deposit" (The Rt. Hon. Reginald McKenna, Chairman, Midland Bank).

Now somebody has to create money out of nothing in order to keep the economy going, but it should not be done by usury. We should manage our monetary affairs and financial matters with Christian Biblical policy in place of Jewish Talmudic policy, with private competitive enterprise in place of cartels. I won't go into the mechanics of this because we are at the end of the Age: everything is downhill from here on in. Suffice to say that money should be issued as a credit rather than as a debt and by the government, not by private (foreign-owned) corporations. It might be issued annually to citizens as shareholders, in an amount determined by the increased wealth of the nation.

Let's be sure that we clearly understand the Rothschilds and the privileges bought and paid for by them. The Monarchies of Europe, we call the "Black Nobility," and a corporation we know as the US government, through bribery and corruption, gave the Rothschilds permission, Norman Dodd (Chief researcher for the US Congress Reece' Select Committee) called a "franchise," to force men, through usury, into fiscal servitude by binding their working life-time to the banks. They need not contract Rothschilds directly, because small bankers can do nothing without doing monetary homage to Rothschilds and a few foreigner shareholders who own the Federal Reserve.

The foreign-owned "Fed" creates cash out of thin air against US Treasury bonds backed by the taxpayer. Against these guilt edged securities, Rothschild's "Fed" writes a credit in their ledger against which they debit a cheque to the Government for so-many valueless billions of dollars instantly created out of nothing and paid to the Government who in turn write cheques to meet their commitments. Thus an unpayable debt places citizens of the United States in bondage to Rothschilds, and greatly empowers government to spend the life-time of future citizens who will not be born for decades (First Seal, 166:5).

A significant percentage of this new government money is channeled back to the banks where it is converted into hard assets. Thus the wealth of the nation is stolen and exchanged for decorated paper. The Indians of Manhattan Island were smarter, driving a tighter deal than modern Americans. They held-out for glass beads.

How is a great deal of this money channeled back to the banks? By foreign aid. Grants of public money and guarantees enable debtor nations to meet their obligations to international bankers, making it possible for them to increase borrowings, (and interest due to Rothschilds et al). What are the banks selling? They are marketing psychology. Look at the armaments industry. It's manufacturing an expensive product that is ultimately destroyed or scrapped because of obsolescence. It is written off. But it must be paid for.

The international bankers enslave mankind financially by seizing control of the money systems of nations, granting huge loans for unnecessary or inefficient projects, sometimes bringing an economy under management and imposing conditionalities sure to impoverish and depopulate those nations and entrench inefficiencies such that the bankers will eventually demand ownership of the resources and people, in exchange for uncreating or canceling the entry in their debtor's ledger. This is about to happen in Australia and the USA. It was planned that-a-way—right from the start.

Like the Third World we will soon come under the supervision of the privately owned IMF which has been siphoning our wealth for years through Agreements wherein foreign corporations pay no tax, perpetrating environmental hoaxes, and transferring industry offshore according to the LIMA Agreement, destroying whole economies as we have seen in Russia and Asia.

Most nations have a central bank privately owned and/or Illuminati controlled. In Britain it is the Bank of England; in Germany, the Bundesbank; in America, the Federal Reserve. Australia's Reserve Bank is owned by the Commonwealth but controlled by the Treasury Department who are in turn an asset of the City of London.

The IMF and WB constitute a central bank for central banks. They impose world credit policy on national central banks, effectively mortgaging industry; and through their governance, those nations, to the world banking system. Since indebtedness cannot be repaid because the money does not exist, the banking system becomes the virtual owner of industry and nations.

Even I can see that lending at interest means that more money must be repaid than is lent. This is the first stage of the process by which the system becomes virtual owner of industry and nations. We have rejected God's ways and made a bargain with the children of the Devil who are wiser in the ways of the world than the children of Light. We are stone motherless broke, and about to return to serfdom. Brother Branham said DON'T enter into business with them, they'll "skin you alive to get your money." And they have (Sixth Seal, 426:6).

These pagans have us enslaved. Who rules the United States which was built on Christianity? How about Australia and Britain, whose common law and government ultimately rests upon the faith of the Holy Bible? We are ruled by these nokri whose money power has compromised our characterless politicians.

We have been enslaved by mind-control and Talmudic influence. This slavery doesn't need to be recognized by the serfs to be in effect for the fetters and chains are upon our hearts and minds. We are "wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked, and know it not." Jesus foretold our condition (Revelation 3:17).

He said, "You shall know the truth, and the TRUTH shall make you free" (John 8:32). Clearly what has us bound is lack of truth, the absence of a clear revelation in our lives. Lack of faith has enslaved our mind (or mortal spirit), the womb for our heart (or soul), and those faculties control our physical being, our body.

Revelation 5 teaches us that the Bible was bound with Seven Seals, and that no man was found worthy to open and to read the Book, or even look upon It. Yet the Seals were invisible and the Book could be opened and read by anyone. But it could not be understood until the Lamb revealed the mystery of the revelations contained in the Seven Seals.

Likewise, as a people, our minds and hearts have been sealed from intelligent understanding by the LIES we have permitted men to put before us. Our banking and financial system is a LIE franchised to Mr. Rothschild worldwide, as our education (or mind-programming) system is a LIE that is franchised to Mr. Rockefeller worldwide. Men's eyes and ears have been sealed against common sense, simple fact, and Bible faith.

Speaking before his death in 1919, President Theodore Roosevelt said: "These International Bankers and Rockefeller-Standard Oil interests control the majority of newspapers (and in fact the major schoolbook publishers) and the columns of these papers to club into submission or drive out of public office officials who refuse to do the bidding of the powerful corrupt cliques which compose the invisible government."

"Money" is a means of exchange and theoretically a storehouse of values but the people who run world banking have found ways and means whereby they can rob the store and leave you poor. Money may also be regarded as compressed time: YOUR life-time, and therefore as irreplaceable as human life. "For it is appointed to a man but once to (live and then) die, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). The natural types the Spiritual—debasing the currency is fraud, so is lending money at interest because it is stealing the life-time of citizens, for money is a storehouse of values—it is stored (working) time. As Satan's children thus rob you of your natural life, he is stealing your eternal life by doctrinal fraud.

If you are take note of these words and PROVE all things, you will know the truth, and the TRUTH shall set you free.

Inflation is the deliberate destruction of the form in which man stores and in a sense can retrieve and use life-time. Inflation is deliberate premeditated murder of future life-time, as depression is murder in retrospect because it debases past life-time.

As we have already pointed out, the sovereignty of nation-states has been usurped by the international bankers and international law. Students of history will know it is impossible to repudiate national debt, even by revolution. Readers who are specially alert will realize that by means of national debt and international law, America is still a Jewish colony owned and controlled by the City of London. So, by legal sleight of hand, is Australia. The recent impeachment proceedings against President Clinton were actually nothing to do with him but were a mask to enable legal proceedings to progress whereby not only the nation but also the individual citizens would become chattels enslaved to these foreign nokri.

Article VI of the US Constitution states, "All Debts contracted and Engagements entered into, BEFORE the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation.

This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME Law of the Land; and the Judges in EVERY State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary NOTWITHSTANDING." And so-forth.

And in Australia, treaties with foreign powers are the SUPREME Law of the land. Australia has signed over 2000 treaties with the UN alone, all unsighted, undebated and unauthorized by Parliament. The UN represents and is ruled by the nokri who are the beneficial owners of the international bankers.

Because we received not the love of the Truth (Christ, the Word), preferring Ringside with the Wrestlers, or Bay Watch, God has sent us a strong delusion that we should believe the humanistic LIE of the "universal brotherhood of man," that "God loves everyone," and that "all men are created equal," and we will be DAMNED by it (II Thessalonians 2:11). We have not been watchful, we've allowed the waters of the Holy Spirit to ebb, busying ourselves with worldly things like they did in Babylon, enabling the enemy to walk under the city gates and take us over, without firing a shot (Revelation 16:12).

Roosevelt did a similar thing in America without the knowledge or consent of citizens. Senate Document 43, written in 1933 states, "The ultimate ownership of all property is in the State; individual so-called ownership is only by virtue of government, and use must be in accordance with law and subordinate to the necessities of the State."

What this means to Americans today is that they do not own their car, home, land or any other material object. They merely possess a right or license from the State for its use. And that can be withdrawn by caprice. America is legally already a Communist state and knows it not. What citizens consider personal possessions are collateral for the bankers who call the shots. “Government” has a right to tax anything and everything because “government” owns everything. They call these taxes “licenses” and “permits.”

If the government withdraws individual rights, citizens themselves become property. Hence the anxiety of our communist Liberal, Labor and National political parties to introduce a Bill of Rights in Australia whereby the government confers limited rights upon the citizens, (and if government has power to grant rights, they have power to rescind rights). Presently the citizens grant and limit the powers of government. They don’t like that idea.

In Australia today, because of Native Title legislation and High Court decisions in the Mabo and Wik cases, radical (complete, unassailable ownership) Crown freehold, leasehold, etc., title is no longer available on Pastoral leases, we now have a second land law—Native Title. Should Australia officially become a republic, radical law and “rights” to private ownership of land will expire (as the NWO Communists propose) and all land will be subject to Native Title. Under a Crown title the owner has all powers vested in the title. Under statutory title, he has nothing more than “legitimate expectations” or “rights” granted by statute that can be changed by government caprice.

In elected dictatorships of colonies like the US, “rights” granted by their foreign-controlled government are the only property US citizens can possess. This includes the “right” to own land, a car or any real property, including the “right” to a means of defense. Those are the “rights” to which the Senate refers in Document 43.

So, my Yankee Doodle Dandy Brothers and Sisters, your people are “wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked, and know it not.” In short, you are slaves and chattels, property of the nokri money power, because you tolerated evil and allowed them to write your Constitution and control your banking and monetary system, and you’ve being “skinned alive.” Presidents Lincoln and Washington, Australia’s Ben Chiffley, and Enoch Powell in Britain, warned us all but we would not listen (Sixth Seal, 426:6).

The powers-that-be propose that the slavery of all nations should very soon become proclaimed “official” in the UN’s planned NWO.

We’re slaves now, to the banking system. As I explained, money is natural life-time in a form convertible into goods and services at some future time, as God’s Word is the Holy Spirit in a Form we can receive by faith. We’re enslaved by usury because the money or working life-time required to meet interest payments doesn’t exist as interest is money created at the stroke of a pen.

After the return from Babylonian Captivity, Nehemiah forced the people to refund extractions of 1% monthly interest they had taken from their brethren (Nehemiah 6:10-19; Ezekiel 22:12). And money lenders were common among the Jews in Christ’s day. In the parable of the talents, He represents the lord of the unprofitable servant as rebuking his slothfulness declaring, "I should have received my money with usury" (Matthew 25:27).

"During the Dark Ages," wrote the Jew, Cecil Roth, in his contribution to the Encyclopedia Britannica (1973), entitled "Jews", -- "the commerce of Western Europe was largely in Jewish hands, NOT excluding the slave trade, and in the Carolingian cartularies (i.e. register of charters, titles and deeds) Jew and Merchant are used as almost interchangeable terms."

The stipulation that the Western powers were to hand back to Stalin his runaway subjects after World War II placed American and British military authorities in the role of "slave catchers," rounding up refugees from and for slave labor in Britain, France, Germany and Russia after the War.

In a previous service we spoke of the slave trade conducted by the self-styled Jews of Tyre, Sidon and Carthage. They predominated in trading and transporting white English and black African slaves to America. Now the same people have enslaved the masses to nicotine, alcohol, filthy movies, depraved music, dependence upon narcotics and drugs of addiction.

Drugs are an important element in the secret government of the Illuminati. This industry brings in unimaginable amounts of money and is accountable to no government. By making drugs plentiful and free or cheap, masses can be addicted and reduced to slavery under the complete control of the suppliers. An addict will do literally anything for a "fix".

As bankers create depression and inflation by fluctuations in the supply of money, their people manipulate the drug market. Making drugs scarce, can increase prices and threaten a crime wave. Thus terrorizing law abiding citizens to surrender certain freedoms and rights to, "get the crime and drugs off the street". Once citizens have surrendered more privileges to the Authorities, drug supplies are increased and prices are lowered. Crime disappears, making the new laws appear effective. A clever technique of the children of Darkness. (Lyndon LaRouche, Dope, Inc, EIR).

Let money be your servant not your master. Work honestly. Set your heart on heavenly treasures which will never fade away. bb990219.htm

World Depopulation and Slavery - Part III

One Sunday morning in June, 1933, the Lord Jesus revealed seven consecutive visions to Brother Branham. Then He spoke, saying that the Coming of the Lord was drawing nigh, but that before He came, seven major events would transpire. "In the sixth vision there arose up in America a most beautiful, but cruel woman. She held the people in her complete power. I believed that this was the rise of the Roman Catholic Church" (Seven Church Ages, 321:2).

Revelation 17:1-5 symbolizes the Roman Catholic Church controlling the last world power. Verses 12-13 reveal that her allies will be the Black Nobility whose "Divine right" to rule emanates from Rome by virtue of the Holy Alliance existing between them and Rome. Revelation 13:1-18 explains how Rome will accomplish her one world government through a religious union with the Protestant denominations backed by US military force. While Revelation 18 reveals that the "merchants of the earth," the self-styled Jewish international bankers, will be a party to the deal.

The Prophet said, "the church system of the Roman Catholic and the Protestant in coming together will control the whole wealth of the world system and force the whole earth into its religious trap, or will kill them, by refusing the privilege of buying and selling whereby they would make a living. This will be accomplished simply, for the harlot's daughters are all but gone back to her. In the meantime, Rome has acquired nearly all the supplies of gold. The Jews have the bonds and all the paper. At the right time, the harlot will destroy the present day money system by calling in all the paper, and demanding gold. With no gold, the system falls. The Jews will be trapped and come into the alliance, and the harlot church will take over the whole world" (Seven Church Ages, 314:1).

To further clarify this, He said, "This ecumenical move will end up with Rome at the head even though the people did not envision it that way. This is so because in Revelation 17:3-6 it states that the whore, Mystery Babylon is seated on the beast. She is controlling the last, or fourth empire. This Roman Church is doing that. With the world church system under her Rome will be controlling, and this image (church system) will be obedient to Rome because Rome CONTROLS the gold of the world. Thus all the people have to belong to the world church system or be at the mercy of the elements for they cannot buy or sell without the mark of the beast in the hand or head. This mark in the head means that they will have to take the doctrine of the world church system which is Trinitarianism, etc., and the mark in the hand which means to do the will of the world church. With this great power the church systems will persecute the true Bride" (Seven Church Ages, 376:1).

Rome will "control the gold of the world" through her alliance with the Black Nobility and the fealty of the Rothschilds. It is important to note that the Rothschilds do not loan-out gold or silver. They deal only in "paper credit" but often require that interest payments to them be made in gold and/or silver. (As they have done with the Australian Treasury for decades. And Australia's Treasury is staffed by agents of the City of London, and Australia is the world's third largest gold miner). But Rome will CONTROL the gold.

Let's reconsider some aspects of this coming world takeover.

Recently we found that Mr. Norman Dodd, Director of Research for Congressman Reece's Senate Select Committee investigation into subversive activities of the tax-exempt foundations was asked to orient his investigation toward uncovering a conspiracy AGAINST the United States (Bill McLihany, The Tax-exempt Foundations). Yes, the United States has been invaded from within at taxpayer expense.

In an interview Dodd said, "Investigations lead to the reasonable suspicion that behind the events of history is an entity that is dynastic and perpetuates itself. That entity is what is meant when you hear people talk about "they this" and "they that" which leads one to confront them with a natural question, "Well who is they?" And there's really no answer but it does support the fact that the question, who are "they?" confines this knowledge to a very, very few. Now from the base of that very few, "they," as it were, issue franchises to groups who are capable and willing, in slang terms, to keep their mouth shut, number one, and number two, to perform whatever this central agency feels is a necessity."

"Now, we hear of the Rothschilds in the world of finance. They are not the originators of the control over finance and the practices therein. But they have been given a franchise to control the money aspect of the people of the world. In return for their exercising this control and keeping their mouth shut, they are given handsome privileges of money manipulation and of course increase their money wealth by leaps and bounds."

*"Now the Rockefellers are another example and they are given a franchise that directs that they in turn are very active in the control of the content of education (*propaganda). In return for that they are given vast privileges of one kind or another. And so it goes, if we were to diagram it out we could take almost any function."

This entity, "they," who franchised Rothschilds is interesting and we looked at them last year in Part II of the series, Revelation Chapter 17:12-13. I think it is appropriate that we revisit those comments tonight as we grow from an intellectual understanding to spiritual revelation of Scripture.

"They" is the Vatican in "Holy Alliance" with the Black Nobility or Venetian Oligarchy. And as stated, it seems that the authority for the franchise to Rothschild and others stems from the secret Articles in the Treaty of Verona (1822) Holy Alliance, signed by Austria, France, Prussia and Russia.

This Treaty binds members of the Holy Alliance to co-operate to preserve monarchical rule and to put down popular government. As it is in force today it is a conspiracy to restore the monarchical rule of Portugal and Spain in South America and the (open) rule of (once) Great Britain in the United States of America. This Treaty was the basis of the Monroe Doctrine which declared that the US would regard any attempt by the powers of Europe to reassert hegemony over any of the South American countries to be an act of hostility against the United States.

This Treaty would seem to be the historic and legal basis whereby the Kings of Earth or Black Nobility give their power to the Beast because their Divine right to rule is by virtue of and subject to Rome's Pope who wears the Triple crown of dominion over Heaven, Earth and Purgatory.

It is said the Black Nobility promised a neutral Germany if Soviet Russia allowed East and West Germany to reunite. Russia promised to see that all royal houses are restored to the rightful heirs if they decouple Europe from the American Alliance."

Nathan Rothschild's financing of Britain resulted in the defeat of Napoleon, the enemy of Rome and the monarchs. This was the source of his wealth and influence. And since Pope Gregory XVI conferred a Papal decoration on Kalman Rothschild for loaning the Vatican five million pounds in a period of difficulty, the Rothschilds have been the fiscal agents of the Vatican.

With Vatican interests like the Treaty of Verona at heart, the Rothschilds extended their financial and political dominion in the United States. The Vatican's interest in the US was clearly revealed in the secret 1822 Treaty of Verona whereby the Jesuit Order pledged itself, as the price of reinstatement, to destroy "the works of Satan" it had established in setting-up, by revolution, representative governments such as the republics and "democracies" of France and the USA, and replacing them with the only form of government approved by the church, rule by "divine right" granted by the Vatican (Daniel 2:42-43; Revelation 17:12-13)."

The Rothschild-Vatican cabal unsuccessfully attempted to gain control over the power of the purse in the US through the First and Second Bank of the United States which were established under emergency powers granted to the President by the Constitution, as temporary institutions to tide the country through the periods of financial stress occasioned by the Revolutionary and 1812 Wars. However, the aims of the conspirators to establish a banking monopoly were thwarted by the Constitution. That is, until the FED.

Later, the Rothschild-controlled international bankers inspired the following article published in the London Times. Regarding Abraham Lincoln's issue of Greenbacks, secured by the credit of the nation, it said, "If this mischevious financial policy, which has its origin in North America, shall become endurated down to a fixture, than that Government will furnish its own money without cost. It will pay off debts and be without debt. It will have all the money necessary in the history of the world. The brains, and wealth of all countries will go to North America. THAT COUNTRY MUST BE DESTROYED OR IT WILL DESTROY EVERY MONARCHY ON THE GLOBE."

Of their present activities through the UN, IMF and WB, Willem Lankhorst writes in The Strategy (02, 1999): "The cabal that pretends to speak for the "international community" and runs the lethal confidence game known as the "global financial system" is planning the demise of billions of people. Hundreds of millions are now suffering starvation, torture, disease, and death."

"Through global media control and censorship they have installed "national leaders" who are their agents, who obviously don't realize that without the security of the sovereign nation state, they are as expendable as their people. These "national leaders" also don't understand that their governments can be thrown into chaos. In their lack of compassion and comprehension they stand by as people are suffering, tortured, and killed, as war upon war is being triggered and an end-time confrontation is in the process of being set up. Its far worse that the Cuban Missile Crisis, cooked up between Lord Bertrand Russell and Nikita Khrushchev in 1962."

"The 20 million deaths caused by the financial war on Russia since 1992, has reaffirmed that the "West" is the enemy."

"The world is again on the knife edge, as the Russians and the US confront each other. The deployment of the Russian Topol-M, road mobile Inter Continental Ballistic Missile SS-27, the build-up of which has continued in spite of, or rather, is a result of, the West's confidence game of luring the Russian economy to "open up" to "global finance," and ultimate destruction. The aim is the genocide of billions of Asians, Russia and the US in a fracticidal nuclear war, the destruction of the engine for world development; economic co-operation between the US, China, India, Japan and Russia; the Global Empire's antithesis."

You won't find the facts expressed quite like that in the media. But the popular media, like our political parties, is bought and paid for by the Establishment, and the Establishment is the proven enemy of the people. So much for the Rothschild franchise on money, and what is being accomplished in another name and under a different occupation. Let's consider the franchise held by the Rockefellers over education.

Our education system is primarily a process of brainwashing and political control, producing a standardized unit of employment in the Establishment system for the benefit of an elite. In our years of dependency we are indoctrinated in a history that is untruthful mythology, and religion contrary to Truth, taught by men and women who've learned not to think but to follow a curriculum written by the powers that be. We are disciplined to conform to the social norm and discouraged from virtuous ideology. Liberty lies within established criteria arbitrarily decreed from above without regard for any Spiritual, moral or ethical absolute.

Like the assembly line developed by Henry Ford, citizens are human product—goiim—human cattle—as the self-styled Jews regard us, made to conform to the specifications of a worldly system that has no place for odd balls that fall outside product tolerances.

The product of our education factories has been programmed not to think intuitively but unquestioningly to follow sources accredited by the Establishment. Whatever is not "politically correct" is not approved and either ignored or ridiculed. Education is the process of propagating often synthetic information designed without regard to Truth and fact, approved by the system to advance their cause such that the further one advances, the less one really knows.

If you think this is far-fetched, see if your experience matches my own. Not until I was thirty-three did I find that God is not a Trinity, and Scriptural water baptism is not in the Titles Father, Son and Holy Ghost but in the "Name" of those three Offices or Titles—Lord Jesus Christ. Centuries ago the Establishment church lied, and those lies have been propagated ever since by blind men in their education plants who serve the Establishment and not God.

Consider all those years of educated ignorance that prevented me from knowing the Lord. Truly Satan is the god of this evil Age and the bishop of the denominational churches. All of them.

Then there is History. It was not until I was about forty-six that I began to learn that our history books are one huge Establishment lie. Our school teachers were either educated dummies, or men who had compromised Truth in order to earn their daily bread and exist within the system.

How about Geography and Physics? Some time ago, the Establishment taught that earth was flat. Yet the Bible plainly teaches earth is a sphere suspended in space (Job 26:7). Men died for disputing an Establishment that does not insist upon a flat earth theory today. This same Establishment requires them to teach earth's ozone layer is being depleted by HEAVIER than air Chloro-Fluoro-Carbon gases that originate from the industrialized northern hemisphere and travel all the way to the South Pole suspended miles above earth's surface. It's another flat earth theory and physically impossible. Yet those employed as scientists and teachers, and students who want to pass exams, had better follow the establishment line.

How about billions of Biology and Botany students made to believe the physically impossible theory that all life evolved from rocks and minerals. This is against the laws of Physics and nature which state that time results in chaos, or entropy, not order. Whence do they suppose the minerals and rocks evolved?

More lies, whose object is to cause weak and unthinking souls to disregard God and the Absolute of His unchanging Word for shifting sands of doubt, human reasoning and situational ethics.

What about Nutrition? Your doctor knows nothing about it. Late last century big business began to introduce chemical medicine and the medical profession cut its ties with naturopathy. A graph on cancer statistics will demonstrate this.

The US government has unveiled regulations requiring irradiation of all raw meat. Gamma rays break down the molecular structure of any living organisms and reduces the compounds to their original elements. This sounds fine but the nutritional value is destroyed.

The Rockefeller Foundation now controls the seeds of 95% of the earth's major cereal crops (wheat, barley and corn). Farmers who grow hybrid seeds are bound to their seed supplier, particularly if they are producing genetically engineered plants resistant to certain pesticides and weedicides. Recently rape seed oil began to be marketed as "Canola," an acronym for Canadian oil. Rape seed oil is a penetrating oil, used in light industry and not for human consumption. It a very long chain fatty acid oil and if you value good health it should not be eaten in its refined form. And should not be fed to animals.

Genetically altered crops and animals are being produced. Brother Branham spoke against hybreeding and its effects are evident if we compare the stature of today's youth with people born in the 40's. In some Scandinavian countries, natural vitamins must be obtained from a pharmacist by doctor's prescription.

The Rockefeller and Carnegie Institutes began endowing university faculties and teaching hospitals. Academic associations were set up by elite or like-minded people in the profession or educational institution. These began to establish curricula and set standards, association constitutions, prescribed textbooks and reading and staffed tenure committees.

The philosophy and practice of today's system of education has been brought about by the massive injection of funds by tax-exempt American foundations. Universities and disciplines so funded soon became dependent upon the funding bodies, and susceptible to their manipulation for commercial and political ends.

Rene Wormser, Counsel for the Reece Committee reported:

"A very powerful complex of foundations and allied organizations has developed over the years to exercise a high degree of control over education. Part of this complex, and ultimately responsible for it, are the Rockefeller and Carnegie groups of foundations."

These backed John Dewey and his Marxist educationists with immense amounts of money to promote their theories of progressive education and permissiveness. When Dewey's methods were introduced in Russia, the State had no option but to transport the graduates to Siberia for the safety of its citizens. What will we eventually do with the crop of covetous boasters, proud blasphemers who are disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, foul-mouthed, without natural affection ferals attending our schools today?

When the NWO comes is, they will have served their purpose and I expect they'll be shot—along with the politicians who brought it in hoping for gain, the homosexuals, drug addicts, criminals and other tools of the elite. That's what they did when they came to power in Russia, and also in Germany.

(For further reading on education, borrow three small books from your library: Antony Sutton, How the Order Controls Education; Gary Allen, The Rockefeller File; Alan Stang, The Actor).

Most people never review their lives. They think they know it all because they were taught in school, and have a Degree or two. After graduation they never read or study to explore alternative views to those they unthinkingly learned in order to pass exams. In essence, they have no understanding or faith, only knowledge, and they vegetate, having the letter without the Spirit.

Education is designed to produce factory managers, bureaucrats and other orders of serfs to operate the system for the elite. It is without morals or principles. Trustees of universities and Boards of funding bodies are often interlocking directorates. Like the two-party system in the elected dictatorships we kid ourselves are democracies, they are different arms controlled by the same head. It is one more conspiracy of the Fourth Reich of the rich.

Now they're at it again. Marxist President Clinton pledged to make education his number one priority this term. He described Goals 2000 as the "centerpiece of educational reform and restructuring" for the United States. It's called "framework legislation" because it sets the parameters for life in the 21st century by a total restructuring of society and "is a concept for (further) dumbing-down the schools and altering the character of the nation through behavior modification. It moves away from an academically intensive curriculum to one that is integrated with vocational training."

"The plan sets in place a national system of socialist control over all jobs and education" that literally extends from the cradle to the grave, and that is mandatory for everyone (New American, September 8, 1996).

The nucleus of the new society will no longer be home or family; it will be the school. Increasingly, schools are displacing the traditional family unit. Students are getting such non-educational services as healthcare, social services (welfare, counseling, and social security services), childcare, nutrition, employment services, international curriculum, etc.,

This massive government program is designed to assert its primacy over the family. It may be labeled as a family support or parental assistance program but its advancing a plan of parental obsolescence with replacement by a UN agency, disguised as a benevolent government program.

The student is identified with an "assessment" of his worth to the community which indicates where they can best be "used" in the workforce and aligns the student with his designated place in society, determining whether he goes directly into the workforce or is allowed to attend university. When fully implemented, the program's criteria designates that 80% of students would enter the workforce and 20% would be admitted to university.

School-to-Work (STW) incorporates basic literacy with social, moral and mental areas such as sociability, diversity, honesty and integrity, relating to others, etc. The cunning in this strategy is the fact that the government has re-interpreted meanings and definitions, creating a skewed value, then making that value the unvarying standard.

Values and attitudes are the criteria being tested and standardized. These new subjective tests do not measure knowledge but evaluate ethics, beliefs, ideals and views. The key that accesses the new society will be possession of the government diploma called the Certificate of Initial Mastery. Job eligibility, college admission, driving privileges, etc., are tied to the individual's alignment with these contrived standards.

George Orwell wrote about this in his book called "1984." The language used in Orwell's *Ocean*ia was "Newspeak" wherein words mean the opposite of their generally accepted meanings. Do you still believe America is not a Communist country?

"In the communist ideology, the function of universal education is clear and easily understood. Universal education fits neatly into the authoritarian state. Education is tied directly to jobs—control of the job being the critical control point in an authoritarian state" (Dr. Eugene Boyce, The Coming Revolution in Education). The Nazis shared the same philosophy and the Communist takeover of Russia and the Nazi takeover of Germany were funded and engineered from Wall Street and the City of London. The same people who control the Administration in Washington, Canberra and the other capitals of the Western (once) Christian world today.

Representative Mel. Hancock who initially endorsed the legislation now says, "After taking a closer look at Goals 2000 it is obvious . . . that the National Education Association, in co-operation with the socialist segments of our government, are attempting to implement the Marxist theories of re-educating a society as part of a potential overthrow of our Constitutional government—as advocated by Karl Marx and Joseph Stalin."

When Total Quality Management (TQM) is fully in place, Americans will have totally managed lives with no variables or options. TQM will allow the government to mandate appropriate attitudes and actions. If your place in society means anything to you, your only consideration will be compliance—whatever the cost. The ends justify the means.

Please fasten your safety belts, we're about to land in Aldus Huxley's "Brave New World."

Revelation 13:15, "And Rome had power to give life unto the United States of America and to the "Protestant" (Judaeo-Communist) World Council of Churches, that they should both speak, and cause that whoever refuses to worship the image of the beast should be killed."

How close is the Illuminati's NWO? In Daniel 2:37 Daniel began to interpret Nebuchadnezzar's dream. Nebuchadnezzar was not the first king of the neo-Babylonian empire, but he was the head of gold because he was the first king to subsume

Jerusalem into his empire and therefore commence "the times of the Gentiles" which Jesus said must run their full course before God returns to Israel.

The successive kingdoms were in existence but were reckoned only as they obtained possession of Jerusalem; and each in turn, was absorbed in the one that succeeded. Under each kingdom the people of Judah became vassals of that empire, and the Jewish sacrificial system was operative, with a temple, during part of each Gentile dominion.

In a recent teaching we learned that the Vatican is set to take hegemony over Old Jerusalem by the end of this year. And we know that the sacrifice will recommence soon after the earthquake destroys the Dome of the Rock. So the Illuminati's NWO and Aldus Huxley's Brave New World are very close. So is the manifestation of the Sons of God and the translation. bb990303.htm

World Depopulation and Slavery - Part IV

Revelation 6:7-8, "And when he had opened the Fourth Seal, I heard the voice of the fourth lively creature say, 'Come'."

"And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and the name of his rider was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth."

All four horses shared the same rider, Satan, working toward incarnating himself at the close of the Gentile dispensation, in that man of sin, the son of perdition. When he commenced his ride in the days of the apostolic church, he was the antichrist spirit manifest in the "deeds of the nicolaitanes," building his mighty church by the old technique of divide and conquer, separating the clergy and establishing a hierarchy over the laity. But the saints were under the anointing of the living creature with a lion-like nature; they stood on God's Word, and were not deceived.

Satan is shown riding upon a white horse, signifying the pure or sanctified nature of the Christ he was impersonating. He had no crown until after the First Nicea Council of AD325 where the Roman Catholic church was organized in the third Church Age. Then a triple crown was given him and he eventually became bishop of all Christendom, changing his nature from white to a red power, and the deeds of the nicolaitanes became enshrined as doctrine.

The Union of church and state gave Satan Roman military might and he went forth evangelizing his false Trinity doctrine and false water baptism in three Titles at the point of that great sword. To Rome, the term "evangelism" is a euphemism for the advancement of the social policy and other aims of the Vatican, rather than the proclamation of the Gospel.

The (London) Sunday Telegraph, (July 21, 1991), summed up the Pope's plans for the "evangelization" of Europe: "He is calmly preparing to assume the mantle which he solemnly believes to be his Divine right—that of new Holy Roman Emperor, reigning from the Urals to the Atlantic."

As Satan began killing all who refused the mark of the beast under the Second Seal, he will kill dissenters under the Sixth Seal in the near future. But the saints were anointed by the sacrificial nature of the creature with the face of a faithful hard-working ox, and they loved not their lives unto death.

By the Dark Ages he'd killed so many of the saints that the faith, which was in their hearts, was almost completely lost, for It went to the grave with them. Under the Third Seal, Satan's power was symbolized by a black horse, and the darkness of Roman creed and dogma replaced the Light of God's Word in this age which lasted almost a thousand years.

So bold did Satan become, that he began selling forgiveness for future sins, and charging for prayer. Here he is shown weighing-out for sale bread and wine, the staff of natural life, typing the elements of Spiritual Life—God's Word, and the Spirit that stimulates when It quickens the letter to impart eternal Life.

This Seal took in the first two Ages of the Reformation of the Roman Catholic system of worship. The living creature had the face of a man, signifying the godly wisdom of the Reformers, and the great Bible teachers of the day whose ministry broke the bonds of Roman falsehood.

Under the Fourth Seal, all the evil attributes of Satanic power manifest in the previous three horses combines in this sickly pale colored horse that rides to perdition. This Seal completes the Spiritual redemption of the Church, and the rider receives a name, "Death", and the grave follows with him. This is Satan who is not a believer but a deceiver. Unbelief is sin, the reward of sin is death, and death leads to the grave.

Under this Seal, the saints receive the anointing of the lively creature with the face of a flying eagle, emblematic of a prophet, and signifying that under this Seal, God sends a prophet-messenger to the last Church Age to restore the apostolic faith, finish the mystery of God, introduce the second Coming of the Word, and call both the wise and foolish virgin out from all man-made religions into the unity of the faith for the manifestation of the Sons of God and the translation.

Christ finished His Mediatorial work, and the Laodicean Age ended in 1963. Now we're resting in the Presence of the Son-Light as the Holy Spirit incarnates us for the second wave sheaf offering, and the catching-away. Soon the rider of the pale horse will be cast out of heaven to incarnate the man of sin. During the tribulation, he'll persecute to death the 144,000 elect Israelites and all of the "saved." Then the man of sin and his beast system, the false church, will be cast into the lake of Fire.

Satan will be bound throughout the Millennium because his subjects will all be in the grave. After the thousand year honeymoon of Christ and His Bride, his subjects will be resurrected for the judgment, and he'll deceive them again, taking his world-wide church to perdition with him.

Revelation 20:10, 14: Then "the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of Fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. . . And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death."

As our subject, "World Depopulation and Slavery" suggests, Death is riding the land today. I read about Death's ride in the Brisbane Sunday Mail, February 15, 1999. This half-page article was buried on page 20, so it was obviously an open secret that would not interest the average citizen which the Government needed to leak so that if need be in the future, it can not be condemned for not warning citizens. The banner reads:

Army Plan for Y2K Chaos

"Defence forces could patrol the streets as a part of a Federal Government plan to tackle civil unrest if the Y2K bug disrupted essential services."

"Federal Government sources said Australian Defence Forces were drafting a contingency plan for Army, Air Force and Navy to quell any 'millennium chaos' if electricity, water and telecommunications systems failed."

I believe these contingency plans were prepared long ago, because Australian troops have been training in urban warfare against civil populations and guerrillas for many years. Let's face it, our troops are ill-equipped to war against anyone but civilians.

Bible Believers' radio program of June 14, last year, quoted Wendy Howard of Queensland who wrote: "There are thousands of foreign troops in Australia, including troops from the United States of America. These are involved in often secret 'war games.' It's alarming. Those who are investigating the NWO sense that we are being manipulated by global forces in order to bring our nation under full control of the international elitists. The training of soldiers for rural and urban search of towns and homes is equally intriguing, sinister and most odd!"

So "contingency plans" are not being drafted afresh, they're so old the Army's had time to build a whole town where they can rehearse them. This isn't some strange idea of those in command of Australian forces. As I quoted from The Australian of April 17, 1997, on the radio, the participants are international:

"A $4 million township built especially to train soldiers in urban warfare was christened yesterday with a noisy exercise featuring the clatter of machine gun and rifle fire, lurid pink and purple smoke grenades and troops falling dead in the streets, like actors in a theme-park performance.

Built in an army training area in rugged, mountainous country 60km south-west of Townsville, the township, known in army jargon as the Military Operations in Urban Terrain Training Facility, has 37 solid concrete buildings. It even boasts a sewerage system which allows training soldiers to disappear down tunnels beneath the streets. . .

. . . Commander 1st Division, Major-General Tim Ford, said development of the facility has been inspired by the army's experience with the UN forces in Somalia and Rwanda, and the potential for Australian troops to face future urban operations - Major Withycombe said most future UN operations or any other overseas deployments by Australian forces were likely to involve urban environments. (The Major, of Delta Company, commented). 'We need to have the skills to deal with any kind of enemy scenario within a built-up area'."

Somalia and Rwanda are UN killing fields, where the object is depopulation to obtain control of resources. Aren't Australia and the US also targets? Certainly they are. Indigenous rights and Native Title legislation is being pushed from behind the scenes by the same people—and not for altruistic motives but to steal our national resources and impoverish the natives. Or do you imagine these people who cannibalized much of Africa, Russia, the former Soviets and the Asian "tiger" economies regard us as anything more than human cattle to be culled? Read the Talmud, then consider your verdict.

An article in The Strategy, (March 1998), says, "Reports filtering through from Army sources state that they are stockpiling foodstuffs and water to cater for an expected 'lack of supply' when the Y2K bug turns the national utility services into chaos."

"Furthermore, the information says that the army personnel are being trained in 'martial law' aspects of civilian control."

"This of course, only supports the information already printed by this paper that Military and Police personnel have had all leave canceled for the Christmas-New Year 1999 period in quite a few countries (nearly all the Western countries) including Australia."

That article emphasized the reality of the lateness of the hour, and its MY backyard they're talking about. Was it an official leak of information by government to prepare the great unwashed (in the Blood of the Lamb) Australian public to accept their captivity and enslavement in the name of Y2K "for their own good"?

Readers of this Newsletter are aware of plans to introduce martial law at the end of this year or early next, in the US, UK, Canada and other Western nations. I received an e-mail regarding the introduction of martial law in the United States with suspension of the Constitution and a military takeover of the elected government.

Although I am aware that all necessary Executive Decrees have been passed, (some of which are posted on the Church web site), I was not going to mention this e-mail, but following the article in the Brisbane Sunday Mail, I feel I can quote from it. This information is once again, no doubt, an official leak intended for organs such as this Newsletter to spread as "rumor." Here it is:-

"This morning I received a post from one of the militia commanders that Martial law signs have been seen in two states with burlap bags covering them. A state trooper also pulled a truck over in Northern Michigan that had martial law signs loaded on board."

Well, what do you think? Sounds parallel to news in the Brisbane Sunday Mail (which unfortunately doesn't have a web site).

Now, let's study a little historical background to profile what's been going on in the world, and what is planned, because the Truth will set us free from uncertainty and fear of the unknown. The Holy Spirit shows us things that will come to pass and that's how we possess inner peace that passes all natural understanding.

On February 18, 1999, I heard a Professor Harry Recker interviewed on Sydney radio 2GB. He said Australian women should be restricted to only one child. On March 8, I caught a few minutes of a program on 2BL discussing the World Bank (WB). I was driving, so I didn't hear the name of the conference, but it was something to do with women's health and reproduction. A caller said she attended a WB convention overseas. As she explained, it focused exclusively on abortion, contraception and population control measures, lauding the WB expenditure of so many tens or hundreds of millions of dollars on the program in the last twelve months.

She said that several doctors had explained to the convention that the WB had not helped women. "We need post natal help. Women who giving birth are dying through lack of a simple blood transfusion service. The WB money is wasted, being spent in the wrong area."

Clearly, delegates like this lady are rather naive. The aim and objective of the UN and UN agencies like the WB, is massive world DE-population. Death! The doctors' complaints confirm, the program WB was funding is accomplishing that objective.

The WB has a division employed exclusively on reducing population. They are working with and financing Third World population control programs in over 90 countries. Their investment policy effectively controls population by funding only primitive forms of labor-intensive agriculture using wooden buckets, plowing with oxen and fertilizing with animal dung. Massive Third World and domestic depopulation is the goal of most Western governments.

For instance, in November, 1998, the David and Lucille Packard Foundation, the third largest tax-exempt foundation in the US, with assets of $9 billion, announced a grant of $333 million for international population control and "reproductive health" programs (New American December 21, 1998).

Maurice Strong of the WB, talking in George Orwell's "Newspeak" in which words mean the opposite to their conventional meanings, calls their programs, which retard development and institutionalize ignorance, poverty and death, "sustainable development."

According to the UN, "the Global Environment Facility (GEF) is a financial mechanism that helps protect the global environment by incorporating activities designed to protect it into> the process of sustainable development." In reality it is a confidence trick for impoverishing the ignorant and unlearned trusting natives, and stealing their resources once they've been buried in debt. With no ownership in their country they become homeless serfs dependent upon a foreign landlord.

Like the WB the International Monetary Fund (IMF) is headquartered in Washington DC, and established operations in 1946. The espoused purpose of the Fund is to provide a reserve of foreign exchange on which member governments can draw during temporary balance of payments difficulties. The clever Swiss are conspicuously not members. And no nation believing the Bible would participate as we are to be separated from unbelievers and usury is forbidden.

The IMF is governed by a board of governors, each member nation appointing one governor and one alternative governor. The voting power of members varies according to their financial contribution to the fund. Administrative day-to-day operations are directed by the managing director and board of executive directors. By tradition and precedent, the managing director is always a European national (as the Secretary-General of the UN Security Council is always a Russian general).

IMF policy has served to destroy the creditworthiness of every nation subjected to its conditionalities which are not financial policy, but depopulation policy. The IMF is institutionalizing backwardness. Their loans compel currency devaluations, reducing the ability of nations to import needed agricultural equipment and food, specifying the elimination of infrastructure development and even maintenance, forcing them to divert land and resources from food production to cash crops for export.

The "Report from Iron Mountain on the Possibility and Desirability of Peace," compiled from three year's research by a panel of fifteen experts and submitted to the US Government in 1966, gives us a window to the thinking of the global elite.

As we'll discover, "people" and population are a major vexation to the powers-that-be, who are the servants of Satan, having made a covenant with Death (Isaiah 28:14-22). The Report concludes, most medical advances are viewed more as problems than as progress (as they extend people's lives beyond retirement, and they continue to consume resources without producing). That standing armies are social-welfare institutions in the same way as old people's homes or mental hospitals, and the main goal of controversial defense plans and the draft was the expenditure of vast sums of money (to transfer assets to banking and military-industrial interests), not for the advancement of science or defense, as the public believes.

Long-range planning and "budgeting" of the number of lives to be destroyed annually in overt warfare was high on the group's list of priorities for government action.

Proposed replacements for war included: a comprehensive social-welfare program, an open-ended space program aimed at unreachable targets, a permanent inspection program for disarmament (like the UN has deployed against Iraq), an international police force, a comprehensive social-welfare program and massive global pollution. The report termed environmental pollution "promising" as an "apparent" species threat: "But from present indications it will be a generation to a generation and a half before environmental pollution, however severe, will be sufficiently menacing, on a global scale, to offer a possible basis for a solution." A program of deliberate environmental poisoning was considered POLITICALLY unacceptable, but morally, there were no qualms.

After thirty years we see these deceptive "apparent" environmental species threats have been foisted upon the world by those behind the Iron Mountain group. For instance, Greenpeace, controlled by Rockefeller and ICI, Transparency International, World Wildlife Fund and Prince of Wales Business Leaders' Forum (PWBLF) programs of Prince Philip, Prince Charles, the IMF and WB.

Fictitious alternative enemies (such as Saddam Hussein, extra-terrestrials or asteroid strikes), enslavement programs derived from the Peace Corps model, new religious and other mythologies. Socially oriented blood games, and a program limiting procreation "to the products of artificial insemination" was discussed to allow direct eugenic management. And an anti-reproduction pill to be added to water supplies or essential foodstuffs was "already under development."

They concluded poverty is necessary and desirable. The organized repression of minority groups, and even the re-establishment of slavery were seriously (and on the whole, favorably), discussed as possible aspects of world peace.

They concluded peace is theoretically not impossible, but probably unattainable, and not in the best interests of a stable society.

That's the wisdom on which the leaders of this world base national and global policies. Check "Global 2000: Report to the President," and "Global Future; A Time to Act." But "God blessed mankind, with the command to be FRUITFUL, and MULTIPLY, and FILL the earth, and SUBDUE it." God's thoughts and the ideas of the elite are diabolically opposed to one another.

In 1952, John D. Rockefeller III established his "Population Council," responsible for issuing the first reports and manifestos in favor of "zero population growth" to appear in the US. And its "Annual Report, 1979," trumpeted its continuing dedication to "the spread of government-supported family planning programs throughout the developing sector" and "the spread of the zero population growth movement and the Club of Rome's Malthusianism in developed countries."

(Thomas Malthus (1766-1834) was an English clergyman and economist who theorized that unless population growth was controlled, the world's population would grow faster than food supply. His theory is false, failing to take into account future developments in science and technology. Nonetheless they are used today by ungodly and unscrupulous groups like the UN, WB, IMF, Club of Rome and the Trilateral Commission to support the depopulation agenda of the City of London who control world finance and resources and have no further need of excess population to run "their" world).

By the 1960's, many agencies sought to establish a position for genocide-planning that might reasonably be expected to become a principal US government policy, whether any given President or the Congress at any given time, knew it, or liked it. Among these agencies were the World Wildlife Fund of Princes Philip, Charles, Prince Bernard and the Habsburg family, the Population Crisis Committee of the Draper Fund, the Aspen Institute, etc.,

In 1965, a special commission was established called "Agenda for the Year 2000." This included Zbigniew Brzezinski and issued a report calling for zero population growth in the Third World. George Ball, at that time Undersecretary of State for Economic Affairs, appointed the US State Department's first "population officer" and assigned his staff to study the "overpopulation problem."

In 1967, the "population officer's" task force was transformed into a permanent "Office of Population Affairs" with the US State Department with the sole statutory obligation to study, experiment, promote and undertake policy-reviews with the object of reducing the number of people living in the world. The people who established Communism and took over Russia and later Eastern Europe, China and Cuba, who established Nazism and later took over Western Europe by the Common Market, absorbing (once) Great Britain, now control the United States: their eugenics policies are unchanged.

The Office of Population Affairs set up the population-control experiment we know as the Vietnam War. Generals Maxwell Taylor and William Westmoreland were members of the Population Crisis Committee of the Draper Fund, and were committed to world zero population growth. This experiment in genocide was the reason for American involvement against the national interest, for the no-win strategy adopted to ensure a long, drawn-out conflict, and for the sudden abandonment of Cambodia to Chinese sponsorship of Pol Pot.

This was secretly negotiated with China by Henry Kissinger, and Pol Pot murdered 40% of Cambodian population in the next four years. Kissinger then ordered the Office of Population Affairs to undertake a new series of "demographic studies" targeting areas of Latin America and Africa. The world is now familiar with the US-sponsored warfare, drug-running and AIDS disseminating programs in those countries.

After a series of conferences of present and former officials of NATO and the Organization of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD, NATO's non-military body), the Black Nobility-controlled Club of Rome was founded in 1968. Its objective was to oppose the philosophy behind NASA's space programs. To this end, it gave birth to the environmentalist movement, and it developed a fraudulent computer model as "proof" that "scarce resources" made economic growth undesirable, in order to support their Malthusian argument for population control.

Their objective is world depopulation, a return to serfdom and the restoration of feudal power to the Vatican and Black Nobility. You will understand that behind this is the Vatican push for one world government if you study this very lengthy document which explains how America has never been independent of the British Monarchy and the Crown of the City of London, and remains a British Colony to this day. This document explains how the Black Nobility "franchised" Rothschilds through the British Throne, and how, through International Law and by virtue of the Holy Alliance, the citizens of "former" British Colonies (at least the United States), are still subjects of the Crown. And their nations and personal wealth belongs to the Crown.

I believe that at this time there is tremendous tension between the Black Nobility and the Crown of the City of London, the Empire of the City (or international bankers). I believe this was reflected in decolonization following World War II, and in the current issues of indigenous rights to land and resources, whose purpose is to break the legitimate (though generally unrecognized) legal ownership under international law of the British Sovereign, and possibly the other monarchies over those "former" colonies and their resources.

If the international bankers can successfully dispossess citizens of substantial parts of their country on behalf of the natives, and have those natives recognized under international law as conquering beligerants then possession and Title will legally pass from the Crown. However this is not necessarily in the best interests of us or the subject peoples of any other country because in a monarchy, all property is vested in the Crown from whom private ownership is also bestowed and by whom its security is protected and guaranteed.

The international bankers are behind moves to declare Australia a republic. Already they have successfully overturned 200 years of Common Law to introduce Native Title to pastoral leases or ranch land. If they can successfully persuade citizens to forsake the Monarchy, radical Crown title will be dissolved and all land will revert to Native Title. Politicians would not have the courage to enforce this in cities, but country people will become tenants overnight.

History has demonstrated how easily the international bankers have impoverished and robbed the native peoples in recent months through their shrewd banking system, whether the WB, IMF, or one of the international merchant banks. One way or another, these people are determined to control the world, and everyone in it.

As Malachi Martin, Pope John Paul II's mouthpiece, wrote in his book, "The Keys of This Blood," there is a contest for world hegemony between three aspirants: Communists, the International Jews, and the Vatican.

The international bankers seem determined to wrest sovereignty, or at least control, from the Crown and the majority of citizens, by transferring it to minority native sovereignty or control, which they can readily usurp for themselves in quick time.

Through Khrushchev's "peace offensive" Communism is planning for one world government, after the three planned world wars and three planned revolutions discussed in previous lessons. One world war and one revolution remain. The "peace offensive" is destroying the West, as they knew it would. The international bankers who established Communism have destroyed Russia's economy and pillaged her industries, enriching themselves as they mainpulate the Russian people back to Communism to fulfill Bible prophecy.

Since 1992 the bankers have caused over 20 million Russian deaths by disease and starvation. Amassing huge reserves of hatred for the West, "always working in another name and under a different occupation" (as instructed by Rothschild and Weishaupt). They have thousands of years' experience in fostering hatred and acting the part of innocent victims themselves. One day, the Russian people will rise up and demand a restoration of Communism to save them from the hopelessness of crime, violence, unemployment, poverty, starvation and disease inflicted upon them by the treacherous plan of the international bankers—their controllers . . . our controllers.

The "Jews" and Freemasons were behind the founding of such a ruthless dictatorship as Soviet Russia, financing it from 1917 to the present day, and are still in control. As the role of the USA was to lead us into the NWO, Russia's role is to FORCE us to drink! You'll see this card played after the earthquake that sinks Los Angeles and Russia invades the United States. There's a universal game of chess is being played by the Vatican, the Black Nobility, the international bankers (or hof Juden) and the Communists—you and I are the pawns in their game.

Vatican Rome is the most powerful of the three contestants with over one billion Roman Catholics, and her Protestant daughters in returning to Rome will almost double that figure. The Roman empire knows no international boundaries and reigns in every nation under heaven. Following the Treaty of Rome, the Common Market has reunited the elements of the Western leg of the empire. Since the collapse of the Berlin Wall and reunification of East and West Germany, the member states of the Eastern leg are returning. Recently the European Economic Community has changed from a union for the purposes of trade to the political superstate called the European Union.

With the exception of (once) Great Britain, its member countries are all Roman Catholic, and Rome is quickly diluting the doctrine of the Anglican church from within. If we study this document to which we referred, we'll see why it is in the mutual interests of the Black Nobility to give their power and strength to Rome in the spirit of the Holy Alliance, and for Rome to support them.

I realize we're off our subject: just a few more words. There has always been tension between the Throne and the Altar; Britain's monarchy now needs Rome's support through the Holy Alliance to overcome the international bankers and preserve her sovereignty over her "former" colonies. While Rome needs Britain so she may command (American) force of arms to ensure her authority. (Read Revelation 17:12-13 - Part I: Reconstructing the Tower of Babel and the three parts that follow).

Now let's return to our subject of world depopulation and slavery. In 1972, the Club of Rome published "The Limits to Growth" based upon false computer data, to promote the limitation of population growth and human development.

The personnel of the Population Council was strongly represented among outside consultants employed by the architects of "Global 2000" and "Global Future," as was the Club of Rome and its US Association.

A 1969 UN policy paper on world population claimed that the "population crisis" was as important as peace itself. And a US Academy of Sciences report, "Resources and Man," concluded that a world population of 10 billion "is close to (if not above) the maximum that an intensely managed world might hope to support with some degree of comfort and individual choice."

World population in 1968 was 3-4 billion, and projected to reach 7.5 billion by 2000 (UN and US State Department figures). By 1980 that projection for 2000 had diminished to 5.4 billion. The fact is the growth rate in most countries of the world is now below replacement levels, and it will continue to fall unless there is a complete reversal of the economic, monetary and "ethnic cleansing" policies.

In 1976, the Rockefeller Foundation organized a meeting of the thirteen largest environmental institutions which included the Audubon Society, the Sierra Club, the Natural Resources Defense Council, Planned Parenthood, the Population Council and the Club of Rome. Its Chairman was Project Director (and one-time minister) Gerald Barney. He issued a report called "Unfinished Agenda" which recommended:

- American population reduction. (If I recall correctly, the program calls for a maximum of about 75 millions).

- An end to all high technology, fertilizer and irrigation-intensive farming, as well as pest-control programs, in the US.
- The elimination of all nuclear power.
- No further expansion of US electricity grids.
- Curtailing of cancer-care research in favor of attacking the products of industry as carcinogens, (thus closing-down industrial development and retarding economic growth).

At this time, Cyrus Vance was serving as study-group leader for the CFR's "1980's Project" which stated: "A degree of controlled disintegration of the world economy is a legitimate objective for the 1980's." Vance subsequently appointed Gerald Barney to head the State Department's Global 2000 task force.

In August 1980, Howard Odum revealed in Fusion Magazine the plan of the Club of Rome: "The United States has a new and exciting leadership role in the world. We will lead the world down. We will help the world down to a lower plateau in energy use." Global planners believe "it is necessary that the United States cut its population by two-thirds within the next fifty years."

And that, friends, is US Policy! Read all about it in "Global 2000 Report to the President" and "Global Future: A Time to Act,"—political statements of intent on the part of such policy-centers as the CFR, the Trilateral Commission, Federal Reserve and the IMF to pursue policies that would result in the deaths of upwards of 2 billion by 2000.

This Global 2000 view signed by Jimmy Carter and followed by his successors, Ronald Reagan and George Bush is currently guiding the economic and foreign policies of the US. Its object? Depopulation and serfdom by policy.

Back in 1974 Sir Henry Kissinger had said, "population growth most threatened the US and British national security." He said, "There is also the danger that some Lesser Developed Country (LDC) leaders will see developed country pressure for family planning as a form of economic or racial imperialism; this could well create a backlash . . ." He also referred to "reaching and influencing national leaders" but avoided the mention of the "straight out purchase of national leaders," which was soon discovered to be a major function of US "Aid" Programs. Instead he emphasized "education" and "motivation" (propaganda} programs by the UN, US Information Agency (USIA), and US Agency for National Development (USAID). He also spoke of the need to target these programs world wide.

These efforts have been successful in creating universal mass hysteria regarding "overpopulation and exhaustion of resources." Kissinger's involvement in the 1970 Oil "Crisis" is well documented. His payment to Saddam Hussein of US$4 billion, just prior to "Desert Storm," through the Banco Nazionale del Lavore (BNL) Georgia, came out in questions raised by Gonzalez, chairman of the US Congress Banking Committee. The physical outcome of the Gulf War was the locking-up of Iraqi oilfields, the destruction of Iraq's prosperity, and depopulation.

It is hard to imagine Kissinger KCMG paying Saddam except for "services rendered," or to be rendered. And it's reasonable to assume that Saddam would want payment in advance. Of course this is all supposition because the payment to Saddam for service to the Empire of the City of London has never been explained. But the US$4 billion transfer to Saddam Hussein is a clear example of the way LDC leaders can be bought, misled, and pressured into allowing or assisting in the destruction of their own economy.

Another reason for the Gulf War, upon analysis, was to infect US military personnel with biological weaponry and its antidotes, and subsequently US and world population, and to test weaponry on Iraq to whom factions had sold weapons to be used against US troops.

President George Bush and members of his administration held stock in some of the biotech companies that produced the biological "weapons of mass destruction" sold to Iraq, and subsequently used against US troops. (US Arms also sold Iraq conventional arms to be used against US troops as former Secretary of Agriculture, Ron Brown, a Director of US Arms Inc. and four other passengers on the aircraft conveniently blown-up in Bosnia were to testify. Thirty-seven persons were murdered on that flight; traces of explosives have been found. (President Clinton claimed Executive Privilege as a reason for not disclosing certain documents to Congress relating to these arms shipments to Iraq).

Kissinger's primary weapon of persuading countries to adopt population reduction measures was food. Kissinger lists Nigeria, Egypt and Brazil as "targets." If destabilization of national food production can be achieved, then the primary weapon which can be used is the restriction of food aid. He foreshadows letting people die as a result of the destabilization created: "Mandatory programs may be needed . . . we should be considering the possibilities now . . . We will be forced to make choices as to whom we can reasonably assist . . . should population efforts be a criterion for such assistance" (EIR June 9, 1995, p.16-18).

Catherine Bertini, Executive Director of the UN's World Food Program is quoted as saying, "Food is Power! We use it to change behavior. Some may call that bribery. We do not apologize." (Texe Marrs Newsletter, February 1999).

Nations in debt will be forced to yield land for conservation managed by environmentalists in trusts. The international bankers will forgive some of the Third World debt if they give them the land they want.

The concept behind recent moves against Clinton make sense if one considers developments in the financial sector. London appears to want financial chaos, while they move in (with hoarded gold) to conquer the world with their system. They've already succeeded in Europe with Maastricht, and in Argentina and Bulgaria with currency boards. They hope to rule the world with currency board-type colonialism. No sovereign credit! All development is to become the property of the Crown of the City of London.

President Clinton is in favor of re-establishing a Bretton-Woods type of Agreement which would include restoring exchange rates to what they were before the hedge funds manipulated the Asian currencies, limited convertibility, controls on capital movements, and direction of sovereign credit into high technology infrastructure. This would be anathema to the plans of the elite.

The powers-that-be plan to depopulate the world and return it to serfdom. Their policies have been responsible for perhaps almost a billion deaths by famine, warfare and disease in just the past 40 years. After the earthquake that sinks Los Angeles marking the end of the Gentile dispensation, the children of this world will see Rome and its Pope as their political and financial salvation. Many will also see in him the embodiment of their god who has preserved them from slavery and death. And all the world will worship him, whose names were not written on the Lamb's Book of Life from the foundation of the world. bb990310.htm

World Depopulation and Slavery - Part V

My purpose tonight is definitely not to encourage any one of you to hope for revival in the church, because the Bible promises the deepening of apostasy. Nor would I encourage any of you to hope for reform in your local, state or national governments, or relief from the unscriptural UN, because all governments not only belong to Satan, they are now in his control. Britain, Europe, Australia, America and the other nations of what was once called Christendom are the evidence for this statement and prove the hopelessness of this wicked and adulterous world.

I want you to see that God has send us a prophet in these last days with the only way of escape. I want to admonish you to seek, find and take that Word in both hands, such that your whole heart and mind and being becomes one with that Word, which is Christ.

It's not an easy thing having to tell someone they've been conned into believing they are free. Yet this is the case with the vast majority of those who imagine they dwell in the liberty of the Gospel and have the Message of God's end-time prophet in Word but not in Spirit, who in fact live in bondage to man-made traditions that make the Word of God of none effect and forever shut heaven's gate to themselves.

Brother Branham called these people, "Souls That are Imprisoned NOW." And isn't this how Jesus described them when he indicted the last Church Age who testify, "I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing?" When He said, "Yes, you have all those material things and know not that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked (of the blood)." Their souls are captured and bound by Satan's lie, and like the widow (church) who lives in pleasure, they are soul-dead whilst their body is alive (I Timothy 5:6; Revelation 3:17; 18:7).

Brother Branham identified these with two groups in history who were likewise deceived. He quoted Jude condemning ungodly Jews who came out of Israel in the second exodus and infiltrated the early Church; warning them they would be eternally lost like their forefathers who left Egypt in the first exodus, but were destroyed because of their unbelief. Jude also likened them to those of Noah's day who knew his Message but abode not in its truth. And he went on to give other examples.

Jude 5-6, "I will therefore remind you, though you once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day."

Brother Branham quoted two more Scriptures in support of his case, II Peter 2:4-5, "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;"

And I Peter 3:18-22, "For Christ also has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: By which also He went and preached unto the SPIRITS IN PRISON; who sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism does also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto Him."

Our scripture tonight is Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because you have REJECTED knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no priest to Me: seeing you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your children."

When the Word of God is revealed to us as it was preached to those who heard Noah's end-time ministry, to the Israelites who came out of Egypt by Moses' ministry, and to Jews who came out of Israel by the ministry of Peter and the early Church, should we reject It as they rejected It, our name is removed from the Book of Life whilst we're living as was theirs. We become souls imprisoned now with no hope for a successful appeal at the White Throne Judgment, because we'll have committed the unpardonable sin.

Ignorance is forgivable. Christ was a Mediator throughout the Seven Church Ages on account of the saints' IGNORANCE of the Word, because the Bible was sealed with Seven Seals unto the end-time. Ignorance may be forgiven, but to reject the revealed Word when It is presented is to reject the Holy Spirit and will not be forgiven in this world or the next (Matthew 12:32).

The "end-times" or "time of the end" commenced in March 1963 when Christ fulfilled Revelation 4, 5 and 10:1-7, broke the Seven Seals, opened the Book and revealed their mystery through His Prophet. Daniel said that "at that time many shall travel and that knowledge would increase."

Knowledge is increasing faster than we can assimilate it, and "the mystery of God is finished" (Revelation 10:7). But education is poorer than it was two hundred years ago. Instead of gaining UNDERSTANDING and learning absolute truths and the principles of life and the world, we are told that after 6,000 years, man has no standards, established no precedents for each situation is a brand new experience and we are an island unto ourselves answerable only to the State.

This is situational ethics, it is communism, it is pantheistic Babylonian Talmudism, and it is death. Today's education isn't a patch on the education of two hundred years ago. We have far more knowledge but infinitely less understanding. We have learned to learn, but we have forgotten how to think. We have been taught not to think but to accept what so-called "experts" have decided we should believe. We have been brainwashed world-wide.

Recently we mentioned Rothschild's "franchise" on finance and said that the Rockefellers have a franchise on education (propaganda and programming). These people have been dumbing-down the world, preparing us psychologically for one world government and a return to serfdom. Consider the years of incomplete teaching concerning our history and the denial of its lessons. We are perishing through lack of knowledge.

In Wormer's book on Foundations, his first appendix gives the history of the Cox and Reece Committee investigations. On April 1, 1951 he refers to a speech (CR A-5046) by Congressman E.E. Cox (Dem-Georgia). Cox said that in the field of social reform and international relations, many foundations "have brought down on themselves harsh and just condemnation." He singled out the names Langston Hughes, Hans Eisler, Louis Adamic and Owen Lattimore. The first foundation he mentioned was the Rockefeller Foundation. Cox asserted that its funds "have been used to finance individuals and organizations whose business it has been to get communism into the private and public schools of the country, to talk down America and play up Russia . . ."

He then mentions the Guggenheim Foundation whose money "was used to spread radicalism throughout the country to an extent not excelled by any other foundation." The Carnegie Corporation and Rosenwald Fund were next mentioned. Cox further said that "at least a few of the foundations have permitted themselves to be infiltrated by men and women who are disloyal to our American way of life." As in religion, where most of the emphasis I have seen is on a debate over nuances rather than fundamentals, it may be very appropriate in 1999 to ask, what is "the American way of life?" And what was it in 1951, before Elvis and the Beatles?

The result of brain washing and propaganda is that what was once truth is no longer taught. And the result of education is knowing what should not be taught but is. A focused stream of information has been poured forth from the Foundations that has given us only the collectivist view of the internationalists that cannot be criticized because only "they" (by degrees) know what they are talking about . . .

Despite an abundance of official documentation and hundreds of millions of corpses, most people go into denial when they hear the truth proclaimed, whether that truth be of the faith, on history, medicine, business, or government. Those in denial bind themselves to ignorance rather than think and develop a personal assessment. They cannot concede that the authorities could wrong them. But why do their rational faculties freeze at this point? It's because the education system has been so masterfully designed by Rockefeller's men. The behavior of a century has been artificially conditioned.

By the grace of Almighty God, myself and all Christians have been de-programing since the opening of the Seven Seals.

I was programmed to believe God is a Trinity, I now have the mind of Christ, and like Moses and Jesus and Paul, I know the Trinity is Babylonian paganism, and the mark of the beast.

Because my parents were programmed, I was baptized or sprinkled as a baby, in the Titles Father, Son and Holy Ghost. I now know that is unscriptural nonsense and I've been rebaptized by immersion in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I was programmed to believe Sir Winston Churchill was a hero. I now know he was a blood-thirsty Jew like Roosevelt, and a traitor to his country, like Roosevelt. I know it was Churchill who began the Second World War and that America determined in 1937 to go to war with Germany.

For most of my life I was programmed to believe the Jews were sons of Abraham, the covenants and the Land of Palestine. I now know they are a NON-Semitic, ANTI-Semitic largely serpent-seed people from Turkestan (China) who established themselves in the Caucasus and converted as a nation to the ungodly pagan religion of the Babylonian Talmud in AD740. According to the Talmud, Jewish Encyclopedias and histories a lesser branch are mainly Edomites and Canaanites (Malachi 1:4; Jewish Encyclopedia Vol. IV 1905 p3; Arthur Koestler, The Thirteenth Tribe, Random House).

These unscriptural lies which have no basis in fact have been put into our minds by a well-organized and well-financed international pressure group. To illustrate, did you know that the present pronunciation and spelling of the word "Jew" in English was a new pronunciation acquired after the 18th century? It was unknown in the original King James Bible of 1604-1611 and wasn't introduced until the 18th century revised editions.

The meanings of words change over time. God confused men's tongues at the Tower of Babel to separate the nations. Sometimes the change is intentional and evil, with intent to subterfuge and confusion. The powers-that-be have encouraged a corruption of language among our youth for several generations, to separate them from their elders.

The true and original meaning of the word "Jews" has nothing to do with Hebrews, Israelites or the people of the Law. It had a purely GEOGRAPHICAL connotation and referred to all of the inhabitants of Judea regardless of religion or race. According to their published statistics, less than five percent of "Jews" are Hebrews related to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob by blood, and very few of these follow the Law and the Prophets. Most "Jews" serve the Talmud. It is a pantheistic cult that makes Moses and the Prophets of none effect, rejecting the most elementary standards of decency, honesty and morality (Matthew 15:1-9).

I was programmed to believe that Jews were Semites, Israelites, Hebrews and followers of the Law and the Prophets. I now know that the opposite is the general rule.

From 1942 the world was programmed to believe six million Jews were killed in Nazi "death camps." However from 1979 the world was re-programmed to believe that only 4 million Jews had been killed. And in 1988 the world was again re-programmed to believe that 1.1-1.5 million Jews had been killed in Nazi "death camps." Yet until 1984, the International Red Cross had established the total deaths of all races, genders and ages from all causes in all of German internment camps totaled 282,077 -- about the normal civilian death rate in Europe at the time.

All of the foregoing was said to establish that the world is being systematically deceived according to a long-term plan. And as the deception is universal, not local or national, it is clearly an organized and systemic assault upon Truth by a centralized Satanic power or powers. We know from the Bible and historical research these ancient powers came from Nimrod's Babylon and flourished through myriad secret societies, royal dynasties and priesthoods, Judaism, Catholicism, banking and money-power, and political tools like Communism, Nazism and the pseudo-democracy of controlled Party Politics of the elected dictatorships of the United States, Australia and the rest of the Western (once) Christian world.

I mentioned these deceptions because each of us can identify with the fact that at some time in our life, those lies have paralyzed our ability to make intelligent decisions. But, Praise God, His Truth has set us free. Now I want to take you one step further. We'll go back into the history of the past in order that we may understand what is happening behind the scenes in the present, and recognize Bible prophecies that will effect us in the immediate future.

I'll be reading excerpts from the research of American, James Montgomery. His findings present much the same conclusion for Americans with their defunct duplicitous Constitution, as Joe Bryant and Tony Pitt have found Australians own in our downtrodden Constitution, and as Britons have discovered since signing the Maastricht Treaty which dissolved British sovereignty.

You should be familiar with what I am going to read because it was contained in the document linked to last week's teaching sermon. I asked you to acquaint yourselves with its contents. Let's see how many of us are souls in Debtor's Prison.

I'll quote excerpts from Brother Montgomery's work:

"You have to be made to understand that the United States is a corporation, which is a continuation of the corporate Charters created by the king of England. And that the states upon ratifying their individual State constitutions, became sub corporations under and subordinate to the United States. The counties and municipalities became sub corporations under the State Charters. It is my duty to report further evidence concerning the claims I made in "The United States is Still a British Colony, part 1. . ."

"I have always used a copy of the North Carolina Constitution provided by the State, I should have known better than to take this as the final authority. To my knowledge the following quote has not been in the Constitution the State hands out or those used in the schools. The 1776 North Carolina Constitution created a new corporate Charter, and declared our individual freedoms. However, the same corporate Charter, reserved the king's title to the land, which restored, and did not diminish, his grants that were made in his early Charters. If you remember, I made the claim that legally we are still subject to the king. In the quote below you will see that the king declares our taxation will be forever, and that a fourth of all gold and silver will be returned to him.

"YIELDING AND PAYING yearly, to us, our heirs and Successors, for the same, the yearly Rent of Twenty Marks of Lawful money of England, at the Feast of All Saints (November 1), yearly, forever, The First payment thereof to begin and be made on the Feast of All Saints which shall be in the year of Our Lord One thousand six hundred Sixty and five; AND also, the fourth part of all Gold and Silver Ore which, with the limits aforesaid, shall, from time to time, happen to be found." The Carolina Charter, 1663. (Footnote #5).

I know Patriots will have a hard time with this, because as I said earlier, they would have to deny what they have been taught from an early age. You must continue to go back in historical documents to see if what you were taught is correct. The following quote is from section 25 of the 1776 North Carolina Constitution, Declaration of Rights.

"And provided further, that nothing herein contained shall affect the titles or possessions of individuals holding or claiming under the laws heretofore in force, or grants heretofore made by the late King George II, or his predecessors, or the late lords proprietors, or any of them" Declaration of Rights 1776, North Carolina Constitution. (Footnote #8)

Can it be any plainer? Nobody reads, they take what is taught to them by their schools and government as gospel, and never look any further. Yet they are quick to attack anyone that does because it threatens their way of life, rocks the boat in other words. . ."

"After the Civil War, the CONQUEST of America, you see those that were allowed to be Council of State, were elected officials. Under the 1776 North Carolina Constitution, it was unlawful for these elected officials to be Council of State. Why? Because, the king could not trust the common man to obey him, now that they thought they were free. After the Civil War the Council of State was no longer needed to fulfill the public policy of the king, the Council of State still exists today, but in a reduced capacity as far as the king goes. Now he had the 14TH AMENDMENT, his LAWYERS in the government, his BANKERS in control of the government's money, and above all GREED that causes most in office to continue the status quo. . ."

". . . Who wrote the Federal Reserve Act, and put it in place in this country? Bankers from the Bank of England with their counter-part in New York!"

Those who control the world's money supplies are at the helm of global destiny; determining who owes what to whom, which nations prosper, which nations endure crippling interest rates, which nations can be bribed, which continents can be controlled by monetary intervention and which regimes will fall because of economic hardships.

Now its Britain's turn. The Bank of England may be controlled, but it is no longer owned by the Rothschilds. And the establishment of a Central European Bank will absorb all the UK's national assets, including North Sea oil and vast gold reserves, even 600 billion pounds set aside for her future pension liabilities. Britain is no longer free but enslaved by the money-power.

Maastricht is the home of a shrine to Mary. Since 1400 it has been at the center of Dutch religious struggles between Roman Catholics and Reformers. It is the town where the Gunpowder Plot was hatched by a group of Roman Catholics, who attempted to destroy the Protestant throne of James I. Interestingly, in 1550, there also originated in Maastricht a pageant in which the central figure was a giant with two figures in his pouch—a bishop and a king. A Dutch pamphlet explains that the Maastricht merchants were opposed to the centralizing regime of the Habsburg Emperor Charles V, and invented the savage giant to symbolize the fact that the financial leaders of the city had the Bishop of Liege and the Emperor Charles in their sack. The Maastricht message was straightforward: economic forces are more powerful than Church or State; Mammon overrules both spiritual and political principles. Considering that the Maastricht Treaty of 1992 was the treaty by which the European single currency became the driving force of European integration, the spiritual ruling powers of Maastricht seem to be stirring once again" (Adrian Hilton, The Principality and Power of Europe, Dorchester House, p139).

Pictured here in the PRESENT is the ancient rivalry between the Throne (or Black Nobility), the Altar (Vatican Rome) and the money-power of the international Jews (who are ultimately Communism).

I think you will discover that Christianity was planted in England around the time Junius and Andronicus took It to Rome (in about AD 36), and it prospered. The Roman Catholic church was organized at the First Nicea Council and Augustine of Canterbury (not Hippo), who died in 604, brought Catholicism to England. When Rome finally gained a foothold on the island, and when they felt the time was opportune, they killed over 100,000 Irish Christians who had over the years grown out of the original group that had come to the Lord under St Patrick, who died in 461,and was never a Roman Catholic but withstood the pope.

Its said that the Hebrews traded with Cornwall for tin from the days of Solomon. After the Edomites married into Israel, that mamser race migrated to England. They participated in usury and trading until they were expelled in 1290 and did not return until 1497. Always working in a different name and under a different occupation in their quest for power and money, they hid behind the colors of Protestantism, waging war against Rome for influence at Court. This is typical of how the secret powers, working behind the scenes, create conditions for which other people are blamed.

The great wars and insurrections since the days of Nebuchadnezzar which began the "times of the Gentiles" have always been between "Jews" under a Gentile front and the dominant Gentile empire of the time. For the past 2,000 years, that has been the empire of Rome. The Black Nobility (who are Khazar Jews), Vatican Rome and the international Jews have been competing for world rule throughout modern history.

Let's take a peek at some of the historical bases for the powers of the Monarch of Great Britain and the power of the Pope of Rome. We'll go to Encyclopedia Britannica and look at Sources of British History, and "King John's Concession of England and Ireland to the Pope."

In the matter of the election and installation of Stephen Langton as Archbishop of Canterbury, King John, in the words of Pope Innocent III, had by "impious persecution", tried to "enslave" the entire English Church. As a result, the pope laid on England an interdict (1208-14) wherein all religious service was withdrawn. When this didn't work, the king was excommunicated. Submitting under that pressure, John wrote a letter of concession to the pope (1213) which, in effect, made England a fiefdom of Rome and the satisfied pope lifted the interdict and the excommunication from the people of England and their king.

But the power returned to the Jews by the Bill of Rights, 1689, "an Act Declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject and Settling the Succession of the Crown" when the commoner and Khazar, William Stradholder of Orange, was proclaimed king of England by Jewish intrigue.

Probably not one Orangeman in ten thousand realizes that all the wars and rebellions fought from 1640-1689 were fomented by the international money-lenders for the purpose of putting themselves in position to control British politics and economy. Their first objective was to obtain permission to institute a Bank of England and consolidate and secure the debts Britain owed them for loans made to fight the wars they had instigated .

No sooner was the Dutch General sitting upon the throne of England than he persuaded the British Treasury to borrow 1,250,000 pounds from the Jewish bankers who put him there. In order to maintain complete secrecy the negotiations regarding the terms of the loan were conducted in a church. In the days of Christ, money-lenders used the temple. In the days of William of Orange, they desecrated a church. Their terms were in part:

1. That the names of those who made the loan remain secret: and that they be granted a Charter to establish a Bank of England. (The MacMillan Committee appointed in 1929 was unable to discover who owned the bank at that time).
2. That the directors of the Bank of England be granted the legal right to establish the Gold Standard for currency by which :-
3. They could make loans to the value of ten pounds for every one pound value of gold they had on deposit in their vaults. (The old Babylonian, Venetian, Genoese fractional reserve banking trick).
4. That they be permitted to consolidate the national debt; and secure payment of amounts due as principal and interest by direct taxation upon the people.

Thus for the sum of 1,250,000 pounds King William sold the people of England into economic bondage as President Woodrow Wilson would do to America under the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. By the time of the French Revolution (1815), the National Debt of Britain was 885 million pounds. By 1945 it had reached 22,503,532,372 pounds and the annual carrying charges alone amounted to 445,446,241 pounds that year. As an Irish economist remarked, "Only a Jewish- controlled organization would insist on the odd pound" (William Guy Carr, Pawns in the Game, p24).

Returning to Brother Montgomery:

"What else does the Exchequer (or Treasury) do? The government (Congress) puts up bonds (bills of credit) on the international market, then the Federal Reserve (Exchequer) prints fiat money, for which the government (Congress) is the guarantor, read the following quote from Bouvier's Law Dictionary 1914 ed.:

"Exchequer Bills: Bills of credit issued by authority of Parliament. They constitute the medium of transaction of business between the bank of England and the government. The Exchequer bills contain a guarantee from government which secures the holders against loss by fluctuation."

Also re-read "A Country DEFEATED in Victory". Who do you think the national debt is owed to? If that's not bad enough the bond indebtedness allowed the king to foreclose on his colony when it was time for the one World government, the king/bankers caused us to reorganize under bankruptcy. The Bank of England allowed the United States to use you and I (our labor) for collateral and all the property in America, read the following quote:

Congressman Lemke: ". . . This nation is bankrupt; every State in this Union is bankrupt; the people of the United States, as a whole, are bankrupt. The public and private debts of this Nation, which are evidenced by bonds, mortgages, notes, or other written instruments amount to about $250,000,000,000, and it is estimated that there is about $50,000,000,000 of which there is no record, making in all about $300,000,000,000 of public and private debts. The total physical cash value of all the property in the United States is now estimated at about $70,000,000,000. That is more than it would bring if sold at public auction. In this we do not include debts or the evidence of debts, such as bonds, mortgages, and so fourth. These are not physical property. They will have to be paid out of the physical property. How are we going to pay $300,000,000,000 with only $70,000,000,000?" Congressional Record, March 3, 1934. (Footnote#10)

This debt was more than could be paid as of 1934, this caused the declared bankruptcy by President Roosevelt. Now, in 1997, the national debt is over 12,000,000,000,000. The government only tells you about 5,000,000,000,000, they don't tell you about the corporate debt, which America is also guarantor for. Add to that the personal debt; you know credit cards and home loans, and it approaches 20,000,000,000,000, that's trillion for those of you that miss-read the number of zero's. Mix this with a super inflated stock market (10,000 points from a base of 100) and a huge trade deficit.

What could possibly be the purpose of the international bankers allowing our nation to over extend so badly and not cut us off? When back in 1934 they could have legally seized the whole country. We are being used for the purpose of the international bankers which is loaning money to third world countries, to enslave them as we are, to colonize the world for Britain, and to use our military machine to control unruly countries and to collect the king's debt. There will soon be a United Nations personal income tax for the whole world. The end purpose of the international bankers, is a one world government, with England as the center of government and the international bankers calling the shots. . ."

Footnote # 11

Congressman McFadden: "I hope that is the case, but I may say to the gentleman that during the sessions of this Economic Conference in London there is another meeting taking place in London. We were advised by reports from London last Sunday of the arrival of George L. Harrison, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and we were advised that accompanying him was Mr. Crane, the Deputy Governor, and James P. Warburg, of the Kuhn-Loeb banking family, of New York and Hamburg, Germany, and also Mr. O. M. W. Sprague, recently in the pay of Great Britain as chief economic and financial adviser of Mr. Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, and now supposed to represent our Treasury. These men landed in England and rushed to the Bank of England for a private conference, taking their luggage with them, before even going to their hotel. We know this conference has been taking place for the past 3 days behind closed doors in the Bank of England with these gentlemen meeting with heads of the Bank of England and the Bank for International Settlements (BIS), of Basel, Switzerland, and the head of the Bank France, Mr. Maret. They are discussing war debts; they are discussing stabilization of exchanges and the Federal Reserve System, I may say to the Members of the House.

The Federal Reserve System, headed by George L. Harrison, as our premier, who is dealing with debts behind the closed doors of the Bank of England; and the United States Treasury is there, represented by O. M. W. Sprague, who until the last 10 days was the representative of the Bank of England, and by Mr. James P. Warburg, who is the son of the principal author of the Federal Reserve Act. Many things are being settled behind the closed doors of the Bank of England by this group. No doubt this group were pleased to hear that yesterday the Congress passed amendments to the Federal Reserve Act and that the President signed the bill which turns over to the Federal Reserve System the complete total financial resources of money and credit in the United States. Apparently the DOMINATION and CONTROL of the international banking group is being strengthened....

We are being led by the international Jews operating through Great Britain and the Bank of England, and it is the purpose of those who are directing and cooperating that debts be reduced to 10 percent or canceled entirely....

Then there is James P. Warburg, who was called in by the President and who has sat in on all of the conferences here in Washington participated in by the foreign representatives recently, and he is the financial adviser at the Economic Conference and at the conferences in the Bank of England to which I have referred. Mr. Warburg, you undoubtedly know, is the head of the international Jewish financial group who were largely responsible for the loaning abroad of the vast billions of dollars by the people of the United States and which loans are now frozen. We must not overlook the fact, however, that J. P. Morgan & Co. were close seconds in these transactions, and in connection with this I wish to point out that George L. Harrison, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, is closely identified with the Morgan House in all of the undertakings internationally in which the Federal Reserve banks participated. Congressional Record, June 14, 1934.

At that time a man named Jacob Schiff came to this country as the agent of certain foreign money lenders. His mission was to get control of American railroads. This man was a Jew. He was the son of a rabbi. He was born in one of the Rothschilds's houses in Frankfort, Germany. He was a small fellow with a pleasant face and, if I remember correctly, his eyes were blue. At an early age he set out from Frankfort to seek his fortune and went to Hamburg, Germany. At Hamburg he entered the Warburg banking establishment. The Warburgs of Hamburg are bankers of long standing, with branches in Amsterdam and Sweden.....

Sometime before Schiff's arrival there was a firm of Jewish peddlers or merchants in Lafayette, Ind., by the name of Kuhn & Loeb. I think they were there about 1850. Probably they made money out of the new settlers who passed through Indiana on their way to the Northwest. This firm of Jews had finally moved to New York and had set themselves up as private bankers and had grown rich. Jacob Schiff married Teresa Loeb and became the head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Schiff made a great deal of money here for himself and for the Jewish money lenders of London. He began to give orders to Presidents almost as a matter of course. He appears to have been a man who would stop at nothing to gain his own ends. I do not blame him for being a Jew. I blame him for being a trouble maker.

Russia had a powerful enemy in this man, Jacob Schiff. The people of the United States were to believe that this enmity of his was caused by wrongs done to Russian Jews. I look ELSEWHERE for the motives which animated him.

In the 1890's Schiff was the agent in this country of Ernest Cassell and other London money lenders. These money lenders were looking forward to a war between England and Russia and were making preparations for propaganda designed to support England in the United States. This country was then a debtor nation, paying a high yearly tribute to Schiff and his principals. Schiff accordingly took it upon himself to create a prejudice in the United States against Russia. He did this by presenting the supposed wrongs of the Russian Jews to the American public. Unpleasant tales began to appear in print. School children in this country were told the Jewish children were crippled for life by Russian soldiers wielding the knout. By unfair means a wedge was driven between Russia and the United States."

(Hard to believe that we goiim could be so stupid as to fall for these deceptions again in the Jew's Russian Revolution, their First and Second World Wars, Chinese Revolution, Cold War, Drug War, holocaust, "stolen generation" of Australian, Aboriginal children and so-on, ad nauseum. Back to the Congressional Record).

"One of Schiff's schemes was a sort of wholesale importation of Russian Jews into the United States. He drew up divers and sundry regulations for the temporary transplantation of these Jewish emigrants. He would not, he said, have them enter this country through the port of New York, because they might like New York too well to leave it for the outposts he had selected for them. He said it would be best to have them come in at New Orleans and to have them stay there 2 weeks, "so that they could pick up a few words of English and get a little money" before setting off for what he called the "American hinterland." How they were to get the money he did not say.

Aided by Schiff and his associates, many Russian Jews came to this country about that time and were naturalized here. A number of these naturalized Jews then returned to Russia. Upon their return to that country, they immediately claimed exemption there from the regulations of domicile imposed on Jews; that is, they claimed the right to live on purely Russian soil because they were American citizens, or "Yankee" Jews. Disorders occurred and were exploited in the American press. Riots and bombings and assassinations, for which SOMEBODY furnished money, took place. The perpetrators of these outrages appear to have been shielded by powerful financial interests. While this was going on in Russia, a shameless campaign of LYING was conducted here, and large sums of money were spent to make the general American public believe that the Jews in Russia were a simple and guileless folk ground down by the Russians and needing the protection of the great benefactor, of all the world—Uncle Sam. In other words, we were DECEIVED. We were so DECEIVED that we allowed them to come in here and to take the bread out of the mouths of our own American citizens.

I now come to the time when war was declared between Russia and Japan. This was bought about by a skillful use of Japan so that England would not have to fight Russia in India. It was cheaper and more convenient for England to have Japan fight Russia than to do it herself. As was to be expected, Schiff and his London associates FINANCED Japan. They drew immense quantities of money out of the United States for that purpose. The background for the loans they floated in this country had been skillfully prepared. The "sob stuff", of which Schiff was a master, had sunk into the hearts of sympathetic Americans. The loans were a great success. Millions of American dollars were sent to Japan by Schiff and his London associates. England's stranglehold on India was made secure. Russia was prevented from entering the Khyber Pass and falling on India from the northwest. Japan at the same time was built up and became a great world power, and as such is now facing us in the Pacific. All this was accomplished by control of the organs of American publicity, releases to the effect that Russian Jews and "Yankee" Jews were being persecuted in Russia, and by the selling of Japanese war bonds to American citizens.

While the Russo-Japanese War was in progress President Theodore Roosevelt offered to act as peacemaker, and a conference between representatives of the belligerents was arranged to take place at Portsmouth, N.H.

When the Portsmouth Conference took place, Jacob Schiff attended it and used such influence as he had with Theodore Roosevelt to win favors for Japan at the expense of Russia. His main object, then as always, was HUMILIATION of Russians, whose only crime was that they were Russians and NOT Jews. He endeavored to humiliate the Russians, but Count Witte, the Russian plenipotentiary, did not allow him to succeed in this attempt. Schiff's power and the power of his organized propaganda were well understood by Count Witte, however. Consequently he was not surprised when President Roosevelt, who was often deceived, (and also a Jew) twice asked him to have Russia treat Russian Jews who had become naturalized in the United States and who had thereafter returned to live in Russia with special consideration; that is, not as Jews but as Americans. Witte carried home a letter from Roosevelt embodying this plea.

Mr. Speaker, the restrictions upon Jews in Russia at that time may or may not have been onerous. But onerous or not, before the Russians had time to change them, Schiff had the 80-year-old-treaty of friendship and good will between Russia and the United States denounced. Speaking of this matter, Count Witte says in his autobiography: "The Russians lost the friendship of the American people."

Mr. Speaker, I cannot believe that those people—the REAL Russians—ever lost the true friendship of the American people. They were done away with to suit the ambitions of those who intend to be the financial masters of the world, and some of us were deceived into thinking that in some mysterious way they, themselves, were to blame. The chasm that suddenly opened between ourselves and our old friends and well-wishers in Russia was a chasm created by Schiff the vindictive in HIS inhuman greed and he created it in the NAME of the Jewish religion....

Mr. Speaker, the people of the United States should not permit financial interests or any other special interests to dictate the foreign policy of the United States Government. But in this connection history is now REPEATING itself. You have heard, no doubt, of the SO-CALLED persecutions of Jews in Germany.

Mr. Speaker, there is no REAL persecution of Jews in Germany. Hitler and the Warburgs, the Mendelssohns and the Rothschilds, appear to be on the best of terms. There is no real persecution of the Jews in Germany, but there has been a PRETENDED persecution of them because there are 200,000 unwanted COMMUNISTIC Jews in Germany, largely Galician Jews (Ashkenazim or Khazars) who entered Germany after World War I, and Germany is very anxious to get rid of those particular Communistic Jews. The Germans wish to preserve the purity of their own blond racial stock. They are willing to keep rich Jews like Max Warburg and Franz Mendelssohn, whose families have lived in Germany so long that they have acquired some German national characteristics. But the Germans are not willing to keep the Galician Jews, the Upstarts. So a great show is put on, largely by German Jews THEMSELVES, in the hope that Uncle Sam will prove himself to be as FOOLISH as he was before and that we will allow those Galician and Communistic Jews to come in here. That is why Miss Perking has been PLACED in charge of the Department of Labor. She is there to LOWER the immigration bars. It is thought that, being a woman, she may disarm criticism. She is and old hand with the international Jewish bankers. If she were not, she would not be here in a JEWISH-CONTROLLED administration. (And in 1999 America STILL has a "Jewish-controlled Administration").

When the so-called "anti-Semitic campaign" DESIGNED for American consumption was launched in Germany, France was alarmed because she feared the Galician Jews might be dumped on French soil. French newspapers published articles concerning the MENACE, but now that France has been shown that the PURPOSE of the anti-Semitic campaign is to dump the 200,000 communistic Jews on the UNITED STATES she is worried no longer. "Ah", she says, "Oncle Sam, he is to be the goat. Very good."

Mr. Speaker, I regard it as a pity that there are Americans who love to fawn upon the MONEY Jews and to flatter them. Some of these UNFORTUNATES are under obligations to Jewish money changers and DARE not cross them....

You have witnessed the UNLAWFUL seizure by Franklin D. Roosevelt of gold reserves and other values belonging to the people of the United States, the destruction of banks, the attempted whitewashing of the Federal Reserve Board and Federal Reserve banks, the CORRUPTION of which he ADMITTED in his campaign harangues; and you may have noticed that what was confiscated is NOT in the hands of the present constitutional Government but in the hands of the INTERNATIONAL BANKERS who are the NUCLEUS of the new government Roosevelt is seeking to establish here. Roosevelt's actions are NOT in accordance with the Constitution of the United States. They are in accordance with the plans of the Third International.

At one time Trotsky was a favorite with Jacob Schiff. During the war Trotsky edited "Novy Mir" and conducted mass meetings in New York. When he left the United States to return to Russia, he is said upon good authority to have traveled on Schiff's money and under Schiff's protection. He was captured by the British at Halifax and immediately, on advice from a highly placed personage, set free. Shortly after his arrival in Russia he was informed that he had credit in Sweden at the Swedish branch of the bank owned by Max Warburg, of Hamburg. This credit helped to finance the SEIZURE of the Russian revolution by the international Jewish bankers. It assisted them in SUBVERTING it to their own ends. At the present time the Soviet Union is in DEBT.

From the date of Trotsky's return to Russia the course of Russian history has, indeed, been greatly affected by the operations of international bankers. They have acted through German and English institutions and have kept Russia in BONDAGE to themselves. Their relatives in Germany have drawn immense sums of money FROM the United States and have in turn FINANCED their agents in Russia at a handsome profit.

The Soviet Government has been given United States Treasury funds by the Federal Reserve banks acting through the Chase Bank and the Guaranty Trust Co. and other banks in New York City. England, no less than Germany, has drawn money from us through the Federal Reserve banks and has re-lent it at high rates of interest to the Soviet Government or has used it to finance her sales to Soviet Russia and her engineering works within the Russian boundaries. The Dnieperstroy Dam was built with funds UNLAWFULLY taken from the United States Treasury by the corrupt and dishonest Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks....

Mr. Speaker, an immense amount of United States money has been used abroad in preparations for WAR and in the acquisition and the manufacture of WAR supplies. Germany is said to be part owner of a large poison-gas factory at Troitsk on Russian soil. China is almost completely Sovietized, and in the Asiatic interior huge stocks of munitions are said to be stored awaiting the day when the WAR LORDS of the United States will ship United States troops to Asia.

Mr. Speaker, the United States should look before it leaps into another war, especially a war in Asia. It should decide whether it is worth while to join hands with Russia and China in a war against Japan. For myself, I say and I have said it often that the United States should remember George Washington's advice. It should mind its own business and stay home. It should not permit the Jewish international bankers to drive it into another war so that they and their Gentile FRONTS and SYCOPHANTS by way of Louis McHenry Howe, the GRAFTMASTER, may reap rich profits on everything an army needs from toilet kits to airplanes, submarines, tanks, gas masks, poison gas, ammunition, bayonets, guns, and other paraphernalia and instruments of destruction." Congressional Record, June 15, 1934.

Congressman McFadden: "The Congress of the United States must immediately throw the searchlight of investigation into this dark corner, or we are going to be swamped with political influences that are manufactured in foreign countries and that will lead us to the surrender of our heritage of living, just as has been done on former occasions. Just as we did, for example, when we entered into the Jay Treaty with England, which was ratified on June 24, 1795, whereby we needlessly surrendered our right to the freedom of the seas. We fought the War of 1812 to regain this right, but the same political influences prevented even a discussion of this subject at the treaty which terminated that war. President Wilson vowed to regain the freedom of the seas at the Treaty of Versailles; but did we regain it? Is the Jay Treaty still in force?"....

"I stand here and say to you that I have studied these records, and not only did we adopt this monetary policy WITHOUT DEBATE, not only did we adopt it WITHOUT CONSIDERATION but we adopted it without even KNOWLEDGE of what we were doing! It was a piece of legislative TRICKERY; it was a piece of work in the committee that was silent and secretive. Even MEMBERS of the committee did NOT KNOW what was being done, according to their own declarations. The President and Members of the House did not know they were acting on such a measure. But, as I have said before, the shadow of the hand of England rests over this enactment" Congressional Record, January 8, 1934.

Congressman Young: "Old Hickory was a great soldier. His victory at New Orleans is one of the most remarkable battles in history. The English army outnumbered Jackson's forces. The American losses were 13. In half an hour the English had lost 2,600 men, including their commander, Sir Edward Pakenham, a brother-in-law of the Duke of Wellington" Congressional Record, January 8, 1934.

Congressman Fiesinger: "You will recall the gentleman spoke about Professor Sprague, who was in the Treasury Department as adviser to the Treasury after he came as adviser for the Bank of England. He was also monetary adviser to the Economic Conference in London."....

Congressman Fiesinger: “I was just going to remark that very thing, that the power to “coin and fix the value of money” is solely within the power of the Congress of the United States and it cannot be delegated to anybody else in the world.”

Congressman McFadden: “Will the gentleman yield further?”

Congressman Fiesinger: “I do.”

Congressman McFadden: “What does the gentleman say in regard to the delegation of that power to the Federal Reserve System?”....

Congressman Fiesinger: “I say it is ILLEGAL. I say it is UNCONSTITUTIONAL, as far as it affects the value of basic money. Power to control credits may be in a different class.”

Congressman McFadden: “The gentleman recognizes that that was done, does he not?”

Congressman Fiesinger: “Well, I think I recognize that fact; but it may be that Congress intended to delegate banking and credit control and not the control of the basic money values.”

Congressman McFadden: “The Federal Reserve System has the power to issue Federal Reserve notes, which circulate as money?”

Congressman Fiesinger: “It has. Of course, they are promises to pay. They are credits or I O U’s of the bank.”

Congressman McFadden: “And that power was delegated by Congress in the Federal Reserve Act.”

Congressman Fiesinger: “Yes, sir; with the intent to regulate the volume of credit.”

Congressman McFadden: “And is being pursued by them, which gives the Federal Reserve System CONTROL over the money and credit in the United States.”....

Congressman Mott: “What does the gentleman say about the delegation by Congress to the President to fix the value of money, under the farm bill?”

Congressman Fiesinger: “I think it was ILLEGAL, and the President did not want it. It was forced upon him. He never asked to have the amendment attached to the Farm Bill. It was forced upon him, and he is exercising the power because he was forced to exercise it; a power that he never wanted, and I say it is all illegal and unconstitutional.”....

Congressman McFadden: “If the gentleman has been familiar with the activities of Dr. Sprague over the history of the Federal Reserve System, he well knows that Dr. Sprague has been in ALL of the conferences, practically, between the Bank of England, officers of the Federal Reserve bank in New York and other central banks, which have had for their purpose the dealing with national and international price levels. That was one of the functions that he was exercising as expert adviser of the Bank of England.”

Congressman Fiesinger: “ Now, I understand that Dr. Sprague at the London conference was willing to peg the dollar to the British pound at $3.50, and, if he had done that, the price levels in America would have been in the control of the Bank of England, and it would have been so low it would have wrecked our national economy.”

Congressman Lamneck: “Will the gentleman please insert at this point what Dr. Sprague said about who should control the price level?”

Congressman Fiesinger: “I may say, I did not expect to answer that question, but Dr. Sprague, in a conference he had, stated he believed that the value of gold should be CONTROLLED by the British, because they were more competent, from banking experience, so to do” Congressional Record, January 8, 1934.

Congressman McFadden: “Why should the United States be buying gold and paying $35 and ounce for it? Why Should the United States be making Great Britain a present of $14.33 and ounce on the hundreds of millions of dollars of British gold that is being shipped to the United States through this process by favoring four London gold brokers? Why should the United States set a price of $35 and pay Great Britain an increase of $14.33 on every ounce of gold? This is interesting when you consider that three fourths of all the gold produced in the world is produced in the British Empire. Did we do this because Great Britain demanded it? Is it possible that this $14.33 profit to Great Britain on every ounce of gold shipped into the United States is for settlement of a DEBT that the United States owes to Great Britain? Congressional Record, February 20, 1934.

Congressman McFadden: "I am quoting from the President's message to Congress on this very measure. I quote: "That the title of all gold be in the Government. The total stock will serve as a permanent and fixed metallic reserve which will change in amount only as far as necessary for the settlement of international balances or as may be required by future agreement among nations of the world for a redistribution of the world stock of monetary gold."....

Congressman McFadden: "I say again what I have repeatedly said, that there is a DEFINITE PLAN for the redistribution of the gold of THIS country and of the WORLD'S gold. The plan has been known ever since the establishment of the Bank for International Settlements that through that medium, or one similar to it, eventually the redistribution of gold would take place" Congressional Record, January 20, 1934.

Congressman McFadden: "The gentleman, of course, is aware of the fact that the Council of the Federation of Churches of Christ is an offshoot of the Carnegie Foundation which is operating in this country as a British-PROPAGANDA organization, tied up with all of the other subversive organizations which are trying to hold down proper preparedness in the United States. [Applause] Congressional Record, January 30, 1934.

(Brother Branham said the one word missing from the name of this Jewish Communist FALSE church is "Anti-").

Congressman Weideman: "So the paramount issue of today is this: Shall the Government of the United States be run for the benefit of the INTERNATIONAL BANKERS, or shall the CITIZENS of the United States be given the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"? Shall we replace the Statue of Liberty with the golden statue erected to the god of GREED? Shall we forget that the only time our Savior used force was when he drove the money changers from the temple? Let us reestablish the principle that we all believe in: That all men are entitled to a right to work, to own their own homes, to reap a just reward for their labors, and to enjoy nature's sunshine as God intended. We owe it to our children that we shall not depart and leave them in a condition of bondage and slavery to organized greed and gold. . ." Congressional Record, March 3, 1934.

Congressman Patman: "....A Federal Reserve bank has a great privilege. It has the right to issue a blanket mortgage on all the property of all the people of this country. It is called a Federal Reserve note. For that privilege section 16 of the Act provides that when the Government prints a Federal Reserve note and guarantees to pay that note and delivers it to a Federal Reserve bank, that Federal Reserve bank shall pay—it seems to be mandatory—the rate of interest that is set by the Federal Reserve Board. THE LAW HAS NEVER BEEN PUT INTO EFFECT. The Federal Reserve Board sets the ZERO rate. Instead of CHARGING an interest rate which the law says they shall charge, they set NO rate at all. Therefore, for the use of this great Government credit—

These blanket mortgages that are issued against all the PROPERTY of all the people of this Nation and against the INCOMES of all the people of this Nation, they do not pay one penny. NOT ONE PENNY OF THE STACK OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS IS OWNED BY THE GOVERNMENT OR THE PEOPLE—IT IS OWNED BY PRIVATE BANKS EXCLUSIVELY.

They do not pay one penny for the use of that great privilege, to the people OR to the Government" Congressional Record, April 9, 1934.

Congressman McFadden: "....Whereas the lobbying activities of the said British Ambassador, Sir Ronald Lindsay, carried on in the halls of the Capitol, at the British Embassy, in the houses of citizens of the United States, in the offices of PREDATORY international bankers, on shipboard, on the trains, and elsewhere, have for their purpose the taking from the United States Treasury of assets which it is the sworn duty of this Government to protect by every means within its power, not stopping short of war, if need be; and whereas the said Lindsay's lobbying activities likewise have for their purpose the defeat of measures enacted into law by the Government of the United States to insure the repayment of moneys advanced to Great Britain on her written promise to repay them; and whereas the lobbying activities of Sir Ronald Lindsay likewise have for their object the overthrow of the Government of the United States and its reorganization as a part of the British Empire:.... Congressional Record, June 14, 1934.

Now I'll read "The United States is Still A British Colony Part 3"

" . . . are not all States divided into military Districts? At first glance you may not think so. However, look at your District Courts, in your State. They are the enforcement arm of the admiralty law/kings law and legislation passed on a daily basis. As I said before, the voting Districts are also left over from the Reconstruction Acts. In every court room a military flag is flown, a war flag not the Title 4, flag of peace. Are you not required to obtain a license from the de facto government for every aspect of commerce, and the use of their military script/fiat money? Americans are taxed and controlled in the following ways, to name a few:

1. Social Security number—license to work.
2. Drivers license—permission to conduct commerce and travel on the military roads.
3. Occupational license—permission to perform a God given right.
4. State and local privilege license—license to work in the State, county or city.
5. Marriage license—permission for a right granted by God Almighty.

6. Hunting and Fishing license—government taxing property of God Almighty, etc.etc.etc.

Every license or permit is a use tax and is financial slavery, you are controlled in every aspect of your life. All licenses came about after the Fourteenth Amendment and the military occupation, which we are now under. The reason all this has taken place in America is, to colonize the world for Britain. The United States has been the enforcement arm/cannon-fodder for Britain since the Civil War."

(Anyone familiar with Senator Lyndon LaRouche will now understand what he MEANS. The Black Nobility and the international banksters by the aid of the lawyers whom Jesus constantly rebuked, have always controlled the USA. And because of material blessings, the citizens let down the bars, just like the churches. Lucifer's servants and devotees have the US imprisoned NOW. There is only one (1) way out, and that is through the Word that came through the mouth of God's end-time Prophet to the Gentiles—Acts 3:23.

Democracy in America ended over 100 years ago at the very latest. The Fourteenth Amendment was ratified in a criminal way in 1868. Americans should read it, it is your Bill of Sale into slavery.

You Catholics, Anglicans, Methodists, Baptists and Pentecostals! Have you read the Articles, so-called Apostle's Creeds, Catechisms and so-forth that your church claims you must believe in order to have eternal Life? Have you PROVEN what you believe in God's unchanging Word? Are you FREEMEN in the glorious Liberty of Christ or are you denominational pawns in Satan's game and souls imprisoned NOW?)

Back to Brother James Montgomery's research:

"Now, this leads us up to 1933. Our country was recovering from a depression and now was declared bankrupt. I know you are saying. So What, the American people were never told about this? Public policy and National Security overruled the public right to know. Read the following Congressional quote:

Congressman Dies: "My investigation convinced me that during the last quarter of a century the average production of gold has been falling off considerably. The gold mines of the world are practically exhausted. There is only about $11,000,000,000 in gold in the world, with the United States owning a little more than four billions. We have more than $100,000,000,000 in debts payable in gold of the present weight and fineness....As a practical proposition these contracts cannot be collected in gold for the obvious reason that the gold supply of the entire world is not sufficient to make payment." Congressional Record, March 15, 1933.

Before 1933 all contracts with the government were payable in gold. Now I ask you? Who in their right mind would enter into contracts totaling One Hundred billion dollars in gold, when there was only eleven billion in gold in the whole world? We had about four billion. To keep from being hung by the American public they obeyed the banksters demands and turned over our country to them. They never came out and said we were in bankruptcy but, the fact remains, we are. In 1933 the gold of the whole country had to be turned in to the banksters, and all government contracts in gold were canceled. This is bankruptcy.

Congressman Traficant: "Mr. Speaker, we are here now in chapter 11. Members of Congress are official trustees presiding over the greatest reorganization of any bankrupt entity in world history, the U.S. government" Congressional Redord, March 17, 1993.

The wealth of the nation including our land was turned over to the banksters. In return, the nations 100 billion dollar debt was forgiven.

Remember, Jesus said "money is the root of all evil" The Congress of 1933 sold every American into slavery. Read the following Congressional quotes:

Congressman Patman: "I want to show you where the people are being imposed upon by reason of the delegation of this tremendous power. I invite your attention to the fact that section 16 of the Federal Reserve Act provides that whenever the Government of the United States issues and delivers money, Federal Reserve notes, which are based on the credit of the Nation—they represent a mortgage upon your home and my home, and upon all the property of all the people of the Nation—to the Federal Reserve agent, an interest charge shall be collected for the Government" Congressional Record, March 13, 1933.

Congressman Long: "That is the equity of what we are about to do. Yes; you are going to close us down. Yes; you have already closed us down, and have been doing it long before this year. Our President says that for 3 years we have been on the way to bankruptcy. We have been on the way to bankruptcy longer than 3 years. We have been on the way to bankruptcy ever since we began to allow the financial mastery of this country gradually to get into the hands of a little clique that has held it right up until they would send us to the grave" Congressional Record, March 11, 1933.

What did Roosevelt do? Sealed our fate and our children's fate, but worst of all, he declared War on the American People, remember the War Powers Act, the Trading With the Enemy Act. He declared emergency powers with his authority being the War Powers Act, the Trading With the Enemy Act. The problem is he REDEFINED who the enemy was, read the following: (remember what I said about the Social Security Number being a license to work)?

"The declared National Emergency of March 9, 1933 amended the War Powers Act to include the American PEOPLE as enemies:

"In Title 1, Section 1 it says: The actions, regulations, rules, licenses, orders and proclamations heretofore or hereafter taken, promulgated, made, or issued by the President of the United States or the Secretary of the Treasury since March 4, 1933, pursuant to the authority conferred by subdivision (b) of section 5 of the Act of October 6, 1917, as amended, are hereby approved and confirmed."

"Section 2. Subdivision (b) of section 5 of the Act of October 6, 1917, (40 Stat. L. 411), as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows: emergency declared by the President, the President may, through any agency that he may designate, or otherwise, investigate, regulate, or prohibit, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, by means of licenses or otherwise, any transactions in foreign exchange, transfers of credit between or payments by banking institutions as defined by the President, and export, hoarding, melting, or earmarking of gold or silver coin or bullion or currency, BY ANY PERSON WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR ANY PLACE SUBJECT TO THE JURISDICTION THEREOF."

Here is the legal phrase "subject to the jurisdiction thereof" but at law this refers to alien enemy and also applies to Fourteenth Amendment citizens:"

Now, what do you think of this?

The Department of Motor Vehicles was put under the direction and control of the Revenue Department by the Act of 1933, chapter 214 - S.B 238, thereby the primary concern is that of being revenue collectors.

"AN ACT TO TRANSFER THE STATE HIGHWAY PATROL FROM THE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE...."

We'll leave it here with the admonition to study to show ourselves approved of God by rightly dividing the Word of Truth. Multitudes of professing Christians will one day be ashamed because they have been slothful or sought to please man. Remember, Godly knowledge is the power unto salvation, whereas multitudes who believe they are God's people "are destroyed for lack of knowledge." bb990317.htm

World Depopulation and Slavery - Part VI

Today, I'm going to let you read some of my mail.

Let's open our Bibles and read from Matthew 7:16-23, remembering, that in Scripture, "trees" symbolize people. Jesus said, "You shall know them by their fruits. Do men confuse grape vines with thorn bushes, or figs with thistles? Different kinds of fruit trees are quickly identified by examining their fruit; a tree producing inedible fruit can't produce a good crop. And a tree bringing good fruit cannot bring forth inedible fruit. Every tree that does not produce good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Wherefore by their fruits you shall identify men's spirituality.

Not every one who says to Me, "Lord, I believe the Message," shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that does the will of My Father Who is in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, "Lord, Lord, haven't we prophesied, played tapes and read the Spoken Word Books in Your Name? and in Your Name cast out devils? and in Your Name done many wonderful works?" And then will I profess unto them, "I never knew you: depart from Me, you who work iniquity."

The life of a genuine Christian will bear the fruit of the season. In other words, it will express the Word of this hour. Not God's Word for the days of Moses, Luther, Wesley or Branham, but the PRESENT Truth—what Jesus is doing NOW.

The leaders of the Western nations are bearing thorns and briars. They claim to call upon the Lord but they are workers of iniquity, in Satan's service. One day soon, they'll be cast into the Fire.

In John 16:13, Jesus stated that the evidence of the baptism with the Holy Spirit or new birth is a clear revelation of the PRESENT Truth: "When He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, He will guide you into ALL truth (revealed for YOUR day): for He shall not speak his own ideas but whatsoever He has heard, that shall He speak: and He will reveal the future to you."

We seek to declare the PRESENT Truth which shows us current events are the outworking of Bible prophecy. But the world cares less for Truth and faith. They care not for reality, they want to "feel good". That's why so many people are addicted to alcohol, tobacco, narcotics, television, excessive sports, boasting or any excuse to escape from facing reality and the consequences of their rejection of truth.

This week, Australia's Prime Minister announced that we would take thousands of Albanian Refugees. The reason is because he wants to "feel good", he can't say no to the lying propaganda of the enemy in the guise of a friend. Rather than courageously rebuking those evil men who control our Press and are themselves controlled by those responsible for the conflict in Europe, he took the easy path at the expense of future taxpayers.

It is no wonder we Gentiles are regarded as animals conditioned to lick the hand and earn a pat on the head by obeying what we know to be the will of their hidden masters. Such men who claim to be Christians are without Christ and cannot find their identity in God's unchanging Word. They are not justified by grace through faith, not built on the rock of a clear revelation of God's Word, and unable to stand their ground on the shifting sands of sophistry and intellectual bluff.

They are trying to outsmart the Devil in the children of darkness, knowing not that he is the sum of wisdom and beauty. If national leaders please the Pharisees, their citizens, their own flesh and blood lose out, and pay. If they refuse, the Pharisees win, and we pay, because they are playing both sides of the game—and a few other angles as well. Without Christ and courage to express and prove your faith by the Word, exposing Satan and his Pharisees, they will be forever raising the stakes. There is no way to satisfy the Devil who has not offered Rothschild, Rockefeller, or Goldman Sachs funding or hospitality for the refugees of their war. The City of London with their Bilderbergers, Trilateralists, RIIA, CFR, etc. have put their hands into the pockets of Christian taxpayers and their bullets and rockets into the backs of innocent Christian Serbs and Albanian Muslims.

Those responsible for the invasion of Serbia and the creation of the Albanian refugee crisis are claiming that Serbia removed their autonomy, yet it is enshrined in the 1974 Yugoslav Constitution. Serbia is a multicultural and multiconfessional "Balkan America" with more than 30% of its population non-Serb. In the province of Vojvodina about 40% of people are non-Serbs: Hungarians, Germans, Rumanians, Croatians, Slovakians, Russians, Gypsies, Muslims, Czechs, Egyptians, Turks, Gypsies, and people I've never heard of: Bunjevacs, Shoks, Valachians, Gorans are even Albanians. In Belgrade itself, a city of 2.5 million, over 100.000 Albanians from Kosovo have their own businesses, houses and apartments, living in peace like those of Vojvodina, until the City of London offensive.

The City of London can now fire the same racial problems in Australia any time they want. They have already proven it with Native Title Legislation which is about stealing resources, tax and royalty free, destroying our sovereignty and impoverishing the Aborigine. Yes, a few turncoats have become millionaires, but that money will not last long in their hands.

Of all these different races and religions, only the Albanians of Kosovo sought independence! But Albanians are being used to make trouble in other European Union countries. They too are encouraged to agitate for independence! However, the OEBS Helsinki Agreement stipulates there can be no further border changes.

The City of London has provoked this war, enticing the Albanians, Saudis and Iranians to fight the Serbs. Mr. Helmut Kohl, (actually Kohn or Cohen if the truth be known), is also behind them. This is the kind of multicultural (read multiracial) soup these thugs have imposed upon Australia AGAINST the wishes of our citizens. Racial mixing is accursed of God. And the Jews of the City of London have imposed Racial Vilification Laws on this country of Australia. Oh where can we find a man of courage and integrity in Parliament?

The duty of a leader is to put his own nation ahead of all others. God separated the nations, and that's His way. Our forefathers had the highest standard of living of all nations just one hundred years after Australia was settled. Today we are about twenty-fifth and falling fast with 90% of our industry and resources foreign-owned and hopelessly in debt to the "Jews". Forty years ago there was no TB in Australia, in the last fifteen years we have imported it into the country in migrants who can never assimilate, are told they need not assimilate, and are planted to divide the nation.

This pox is upon our house because the Christian ministry are NOT Christians, and we've bred a bunch of leaders who serve mammon and know not God. Our national leaders are traitors. Their loyalty is to the international bankers and the multinational corporations they control. Their love is money, the root of all evil. This pox has infected the whole of what was once Christian civilization and is a sign of the end-time. A sign of judgment.

If it is a sign of judgment? Where is the sign in the sky? Where is God's prophet? You had better find that sign and the prophet, and receive his Message, for that is God's promise and His unchanging way (Psalms 19; Amos 3:7; Acts 3:23). It is later than you think or dare imagine.

Our Prime Minister is a man without compassion for his own people, bringing-in thousands of Muslims who will contribute only problems to Australia both now and in the future. He is without compassion for the Albanians, otherwise he would not be supporting "our great and powerful Political Zionist allies" who are the immediate cause of their plight. All it takes is one man of position to speak out exposing these criminals who have driven this country almost to bankruptcy, invented Nazism, Communism and engineered all major wars and revolutions throughout European history. That man of principle and courage is NOT to be found in our Parliament. And Bill Clinton is to be found on the golf course whilst his air force bombs innocent women and children in an unprovoked war.

I wonder, does Bill Clinton regard himself as a Christian?

Where was Prime Minister Howard's compassion when the same Pharisees from the City of London brought Africa's Hutu and Tutsi tribes to murder, disease and starvation? But these people who control our two party dictatorships in the Western non-democratic world don't care about the black man. He is tagged for virtual elimination. When they're finished they'll own his land and minerals and allow a specimen to subsist under primitive conditions of "sustainability" to tend the wild life and give the elites something to photograph on safari.

Why didn't we race to the aid of the Kurds in Turkey? The Tibetans in their genocide by China? The Tamil minority in Sri Lanka, or Muslims in the Kashmir? The people of the Sudan and Somalia?

Mr. Howard had no compassion for the black man because the people behind African depopulation want the Negro severely culled and did not instruct their propaganda machinery to brainwash us with psychology. The natives just died. With the Albanian refugees they have a double-edged sword wherein they will force Australia deeper into debt to their banking system and form a pool of Moslems to become a thorn in the side of what they imagine to be Christianity, and a tool they can manipulate at no cost or connection to themselves.

Last week I received a letter from subscribers who serve the Lord on the mission field in Rumania. Their western border is Serbia. They asked, "What do you think is behind this caca in Yugoslavia?"

I replied by quoting from a letter I had just written: "Basically the UN, Great Britain and the USA are controlled by the Khazar and Sephardic self-styled Jews. Their current invasion of Serbia and the lying propaganda opposite to truth is connected with power and the NWO. If they wanted to help the Albanians, in a matter of months they could have established industries in this, the poorest country in Europe, making them self-sufficient and so prosperous that within a short time, no Albanian would wish to live outside his own country. Instead they have attempted to expropriate Kosovo from Serbia, then attack the Serbs for their actions." Here is the conversation of that letter.

On a less controversial topic, I have been closely following the coverage that is designed to deny but yet make certain that ground troops finally go into Kosovo despite all official denials at this point. Deception is the modus operandi of the times and Orwell's "double-speak" appears to be all over the News.

I wrote: "You are correct. I believe this is one of many moves of the powers that be in their strategy of eventually bringing the Political Zionists (like Britain and the USA) into conflict with the Moslems with the object of destroying religion as outlined by Albert Pike in the 1871 blueprint for world conquest which called for three world wars and three major revolutions.

This is also a way for the US to gain a fresh military foothold in Europe (since the reunification of Germany) and for the Jews to ensure tighter control over the Russian economy. And it is a form of threat to the citizens of America, Britain and the rest of the world: if we don't "serve the beast", we too will be killed."

Our subscriber from Rumania helps confirm that the war against Yugoslavia is a tool of the elite to bring Islam and Christendom into conflict. She writes, "Pray that those making the decisions to kill and bomb will come to their senses. Serbian Christians are being killed by NATO. There are thousands of evangelical believers there... many churches and Bible Schools. All sides are wrong... it is always wrong to kill." (She doesn't see that the instigators of this conflict, as with all others, are NOT the participants, but those who will profit—regardless who wins. Mayer Amschel Rothschild instructed them so many years ago that they must always work in a different name and under a different occupation). "The Muslims want what they call a "Greater Albanian State" . . . which includes Kosovo, Bulgaria, Macedonia, and Albania. And they are being financed in part by Iran and Saudi Arabia."

The Pharisees have the NATO allies, Serbs, Albanians, and Islamic countries ignorantly fulfilling their plans. They deal so many cards in so many games at so many different levels—but always under a different name and in a different occupation—every man is against his fellow, not realizing it will be to his own hurt which ever side is victorious (for the present) because the banker always wins.

Another e-mail from a subscriber who is a researcher, and awake to these Pharisees says: "I fear for my people; not for what may be coming at them, but for their ignorance."

What follows explains WHY the armed forces of NATO and the UNITED STATES are in Serbia. But for understanding, one or two points need to made:-

A number of 'former' generals of the United States armed forces have admitted that they, and the soldiers they led, were used to make the world safe for big business; not in defense of America.

Are you proud of the 'job' the United States armed forces did on Iraq? Do you know, or care about, the facts?

Kuwait is a 'British protectorate' but was part of Iraq, until the British carved it off so they could steal the oil which belongs to Iraqi people. The oil companies, principally the 'three sisters'—Royal Dutch Shell, British Petroleum and Esso, were angle drilling under Iraq on the Kuwait/Iraq border, stealing even more oil. George Bush's oil company had invested heavily in Kuwait, and he is a cousin of the Queen. $4 billion dollars was given to Saddam Hussein for weaponry prior to his attack on Kuwait.

I feel sorry, for the soldiers who are suffering from the Gulf War syndrome, for 600,000 Iraqis who perished in that war and over 1.2 million children who have died since as a result of UN sanctions.

How about WWII? Whose war was that? Does it matter that the Jew, Roosevelt, virtually forced the Japanese to attack? Or that, just days after Japan surrendered, the bankers and industrialists were in Japan buying-up all that land, newly cleared for urban renewal, courtesy of the UNITED STATES Air Force, for about half a cent on the dollar. Isn't SONY a great Japanese name? It reads "Standard Oil of New York". Now do you understand why America's electronics industry was moved to Japan and the rest of Asia in the 50s and 60s. Or would you like to discuss Lend Lease and industrialization of Russia, our great enemy, over the same period. Were they just a boogy man, to create more profits for the industrialists?

Here is the issue; some day you and the men and women dropping the bombs on Serbia, and those men who ordered the bombs dropped, will stand before God for judgment. You will stand alone. There will be no one else to take the blame, or explain-away the facts. Iraq did not attack America. Serbia did not attack America. Those who willingly follow orders will answer at some point.

Sara Flounders wrote in Workers World Newspaper, (Kosovo, July 30, 1998), "The War is About the Mines".

Wars are at root about economics, and the rapidly expanding war in Kosovo is no different. So why have millions of dollars in high-tech weapons suddenly become available to the so-called Kosovo Liberation Army by way of the US and Germany?

A July 11 report by New York Times Balkans bureau chief Chris Hedges describes the KLA's new arsenal as the latest in anti-tank rocket-propelled grenades and anti-aircraft weapons. These weapons are shifting the balance of power toward the KLA, which is funded fully by outside sources, mostly from the US and Germany. The KLA is "fed by recruits, money and arms from outside Serbia," Hedges confirms. It has an "inexhaustible supply line," he reports.

"Rebel soldiers, in full uniform with the red and black patch of the Kosovo Liberation Army, pull thick wads of German marks from their pockets. There are also signs that the arrival of dozens of former professional soldiers as well as some mercenaries are turning the ragtag band into a viable military force of several thousand fighters." In fact, the KLA is primarily a mercenary army funded by the kind of shadowy sources that have long been associated with US and German intelligence services. It is a contra army.

Kosovo is often portrayed in the media as an isolated mountainous region that's poor and without resources. It might seem, from these accounts, to be an area of interest only to those who live there. The New York Times, for example, has carried dozens of such articles by Chris Hedges in the last six months. Only once, on July 8, did Hedges write about the real wealth of Kosovo, the Stari Trg mining complex. It was a tip-off that something more was at stake in this war.

Hedges' visit to the Stari Trg mining complex is an eye opener. He describes the glittering veins of lead, zinc, cadmium, gold and silver in Stari Trg. According to Hedges, "The sprawling state-owned Trepca mining complex, the most valuable piece of real estate in the Balkans, is worth at least $5 billion."

According to the mine's director, Novak Bjelic, "The war in Kosovo is about the mines, nothing else. This is Serbia's "Kuwait", the heart of Kosovo. In addition to all this, Kosovo has 17 billion tons of coal reserves."

The whole world knows and observed firsthand in the war against Iraq the horrendous extent to which the Pentagon was willing to go in order to guarantee control of the oil wealth of Kuwait. But the enormous mineral wealth of Kosovo is never publicly discussed by US, United Nations Ambassador Richard Holbrooke, President Bill Clinton or the Pentagon generals. They speak only of “self-determination” for the Albanian population of Kosovo.

Of course, they never mention what US-imposed “self-determination” means. It means colonization under the guise of “liberation,” like what the US did to Puerto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines a hundred years ago.

An Internet search for reports on the mines of Kosovo the Trepca mining complex or Stari Trg turned up only the one article by Hedges and a small piece in the June 22 Wall Street Journal. All other mentions are in metallurgical journals. How could this vital fact be omitted from all discussion of what is at stake in Kosovo? It is comparable to describing Kuwait and the oil-rich Gulf states as barren deserts. The wealth of Kosovo is greater than the rich veins of ore in the mines. Hedges describes the mining complex:-

“The Stari Trg mine, with its warehouses, is ringed with smelting plants, 17 metal treatment sites, freight yards, railroad lines, a power plant and the country’s largest battery plant.”

The labor of millions of workers throughout socialist Yugoslavia built this mining complex into the powerhouse it is today. It was their wealth that was invested in developing the complex. It belongs not just to those who live in Kosovo, but to the workers of all Yugoslavia. The Yugoslav web site describes Trepca as the “richest lead and zinc mines in Europe.” Lignite deposits in the Kosovo mines, according to experts, are sufficient for the next 13 centuries. The capacity of the lead and zinc refineries ranks third in the world. Miners work round the clock, day and night, in six-hour shifts.

According to the mine director, “In the last three years we have mined 2,538,124 tons of lead and zinc crude ore and produced 286,502 tons of lead and zinc and 139,789 tons of pure lead, zinc, cadmium, silver and gold.” Although the average person watching the news in the evening has never heard of Stari Trg, it has been a prize changing hands for two thousand years. The wealth of Stari Trg is legendary. Precious metals were mined there more than 2,000 years ago, first by the Greeks, then by the Romans.

These mines were the grand prize in the Nazi occupation of the Balkans after Germany grabbed control from the British. The mines have great industrial and military importance. The Nazis used batteries produced there to power their U-boats. Today submarine batteries are still made there. Profits from these mines are helping to keep the Yugoslav Federation afloat.

Through US and UN sanctions imposed on Serbia and Montenegro, the two remaining republics of Yugoslavia have taken an enormous toll. Without investment credits, loans for financing industry, imports and exports, the economy has been stifled. Inflation has weakened the currency. The mines, which once were the largest employer in the province, have also been affected. The most important words in Hedges’ article are the description of the complex as “state owned.” Throughout this decade, as the capitalist market has swept over the former socialist countries of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union, socialist Yugoslavia has attempted to resist privatization of its industry and natural resources. To break this resistance, the Western imperialist countries are now playing a major role in the breakup of socialist Yugoslavia.

This huge complex of mines, refining, power and transportation in Kosovo may be amongst the largest uncontested piece of wealth not yet in the hands of the big capitalists of the US or Europe. The industry, natural resources and transportation of all the former Soviet republics, the socialist countries of Eastern Europe, and the secessionist republics of Yugoslavia are now being rapidly privatized. No one within the region has the wealth or connections to finance capital to buy controlling shares of these vast state-owned industries.

Lending and credit conditions of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank require the breakup of all state-owned industries. (This way they can control national infrastructure and industries, destroying independent sovereignty, and enslaving millions by their money control). This is true of the oil and natural gas wealth of the Caucasus and the Caspian Sea and the diamond mines of Siberia. The decision as to who will own or have a controlling interest in the 22 mines and many processing plants of the Trepca complex will depend upon who wins the armed struggle raging in Kosovo. NATO domination on the ground would put US corporations in the dominant position.

Yugoslavia has tried to control the process of privatization, proposing Balkan regional development. According to the June 22 Wall Street Journal, the Yugoslav Federation is negotiating to sell shares in the Trepca mining complex. Forced by the economic crisis, they have been negotiating with Greek investor Mytilineos Holdings SA. But former manager of the mines, Byrhan Kavaja, now allied with the opposition to the Yugoslav government, has written to all corporations dealing in soft metals to tell them not to make agreements with the Yugoslav government. Kavaja says that once a new government is in power, all past decisions on ownership will be invalidated. The opposition will make “new agreements”. Who is likely to be the beneficiary of these agreements?

The progressive movement in the US and throughout Western Europe must be at the forefront in explaining that the billions of dollars spent on the US/NATO occupation of the region is not in the interests of any of the people of the Balkans. Nor is it in the interests of poor and working people in the US or Europe. The war is destroying all that was built through collective ownership and collaboration in the Balkans. This war will mean higher taxes and even more cuts in social programs in the US and Europe. But the billions of dollars in profit will go to a few wealthy stockholders in the US or in Western Europe. (And Yugoslavia will have to borrow from the bankers for reconstruction).

Here’s what a US Congresswoman Rep. Helen Chenoweth had to say: “It is a remarkable spectacle to see the Clinton Administration and NATO taking over from the Soviet Union the role of sponsoring “wars of national liberation.”

More remarkable still, and even more unsettling, is the fact that the beneficiary in the case of Kosovo—the so-called Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA) -- is a collection of Maoist drug-peddlers and terrorists who have been armed by Iran and provided with training and support by Saudi terrorist financier Osama bin Ladin.

When Bill Clinton, in an earlier crime against the Constitution, unilaterally launched missile strikes on Afghanistan and Sudan, he claimed that his target was the terrorist network operated by bin Ladin. However, in Kosovo, Bill Clinton has committed America's military might to the support of bin Ladin's Balkan allies, and the policy of the Clinton Administration seeks the creation of a Balkan outpost for bin Ladin's terrorist network.

"The New American" was the first national publication in this country to document the KLA's narco-terrorist background ("Diving into the Kosovo Quagmire," March 15th issue), and I made this Magazine's findings available to many of my colleagues on Capitol Hill. Although few US publications have looked into the KLA's role in international narco-terrorism, the Times of London for March 24th, in a story published just before NATO commenced air strikes upon Yugoslavia, reported that the KLA, in "the judgment of senior police officers across Europe," is "a Marxist-led force funded by dubious sources, including drug money." Police forces in three Western European countries, together with Europol, "are separately investigating growing evidence that drug money is funding the KLA's leap from obscurity to power," continued the report."

Haven't the Pharisees controlled the drug trade since they grew it in India and imposed it upon China and the rest of the world? And don't they also control international banking and legal money-laundering facilities like Casinos? The drug money has to be invested. Why not use it to purchase a world by the old Babylonian trick of the Pharisees—divide and conquer. Always, of course, under another name and in a different occupation.

A report filed on the same day by Steve Rodan of the World Tribune described how an "autonomous" Kosovo under KLA control could serve as a springboard for Iranian sponsored terrorism throughout Europe and beyond.

"According to Western European security experts", writes Rodan, "Iran, Saudi Arabia and some of their terrorist beneficiaries have exploited the fighting to establish a sphere of influence that spans from Greece to the Austrian border."

NATO's willingness to go to war on behalf of Muslim ethnic Albanians in Kosovo could ignite insurrections across Europe, to which the KLA's terrorist sponsors would eagerly lend support.

"The concern of European strategists is that an Iranian sphere of influence would do greater damage to such Western countries as Britain, France and Germany," reported Rodan. "France has about two million Muslims, most of them poor and alienated. Britain has about 1.5 million." A European diplomat told Rodan, "Once these minorities feel that they can obtain the support of NATO, we could see flare-ups everywhere."

We could see "flare-ups" within our own nation as well—and the Kosovo precedent would justify military intervention by the "international community" to settle such conflicts within our own borders. Consider the case of the southwestern United States, a region referred to as "Aztlan," the mythical homeland of the Aztecs, by such militant groups as the "Brown Berets." Aztlan radicals have announced their intention to conduct la reconquista (the re-conquest) of that region through unrestrained illegal immigration, as well as subversion and violence. It is not difficult to foresee a future scenario in which the "international community" authorizes the use of military force in support of "autonomy" for Aztlan, in the same way that the war in Yugoslavia was launched in support of "autonomy" for an Albanian Muslim-dominated Kosovo.

But that's the plan, Mr. Rodan! Always under another name and in a different occupation. Now "they" claim "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion" are a forgery. Maybe so, but they sure demonstrate that the Talmud is the original pattern. As Henry Ford said, "They surely explain what's going on".

This is all part of a long-term plan. The enemies of Christianity and mankind are creating conditions for future violence and bloody warfare between Muslims and so-called Christians throughout the world, to the consummate Rothschild's plans for totalitarian one world government as laid down by Albert Pike. By the grace of God, the Church will be gone three and a half years beforehand.

There were NO refugees until Clinton began the bombing. The order was given last October, not at 2000hrs on March 24, 1999 when 200 NATO airplanes, hundreds of tomahawk cruise missiles, as well as B-2 and B-52 bombers attacked an independent, sovereign country.

NATO Secretary-general, Javier Solana, ordered his forces to attack Yugoslavia WITHOUT United Nations' Security Council approval. According to international law, and the charter of United Nations, such acts of aggression are strictly forbidden in resolving international disputes. Those responsible could be prosecuted and punished.

It was the Bilderbergers who Planned the Kosovo War as early as 1996. "War Planned on Cyprus if Kosovo Crisis Stalled" (Copyright 1998, by New World Order Intelligence Update).

"During and following the 1996 Bilderberg Conference, we asserted that Bilderberger Bill Clinton would be re-elected as US president; that he would promptly break his promise to bring American troops home from Bosnia, but that he would re-position them in Hungary and the surrounding countries instead and pass command of the Bosnian operation to a German general and 3,000 German combat troops from Heidelberg [this later occurred, in October, 1996]; and that the Bilderbergers had thereafter arranged to inflame the Serbs by pursuing the war criminals in their midst for trial before a new International Court [the Serbs, a proud but experienced people, side-stepped this provocation by persuading the lower-and middle-level suspects to voluntarily surrender].

If that failed to incite a Balkan war, we pointed out that they were prepared to utilize Kosovo, thus:

"When war comes, as expected, Kosovo, at the southern tip of the Serbian Republic, may be the flashpoint that ignites a wider war involving Greece, Albania, Bulgaria, Russia, and Turkey—in addition to the hapless US and NATO troops caught in the middle. Kosovo, "the Jerusalem of the Balkans", is a self-proclaimed nominally independent "republic", presided over by "President" Ibrahim Rugova. It is, in fact, a province of Serbia, though its population is largely of Albanian descent. The United States, though on record as recommending more "autonomy" for Kosovo, treats the province to all intents and purposes as a de facto independent state, a fact which infuriates the Serbians. Twice—once in 1992 and again in 1993 -- Presidents of the United States have threatened Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic with military retribution "in the event of a conflict in Kosovo caused by Serbian action." To add insult to injury, the U.S. now plans to establish an "official presence" in "the capital of Kosovo." Aggrieved by this, and rightly sensing the intent of the United States to encircle and contain them, the Serbians are likely to appeal to an increasingly-nationalistic Russia, their traditional protectors, for help and military assistance. As reported by Germany's DIE ZEIT, "Serbia is every place where there are Serbian trenches or Serbian graves", according to Serbian opposition leader Val Draskovic. That means that Serbia will fight to retain Kovoso, in spite of the fact that its population is 90% Albanian. The Albanian Kosovans, determined to be independent, will fight back. That will likely draw into the conflict the 3.4 million inhabitants of Albania proper, together with the Albanians of Montenegro and Macedonia. Albania also has openly-expressed designs on Macedonia's western provinces, largely populated by Albanians: at least one armed insurrection directed by Albania has been foiled by the Macedonian authorities, and the Albanians continue to openly support and encourage Macedonian Albanian separatist groups. Bulgaria, which considers Macedonians to be "western Bulgarians", may then go to war for the fourth time this century to seize the opportunity to finally settle its territorial claim there. Greece, already incensed by Macedonia's use of the Greek "Vergina Sun" symbol on its flag, and suspicious of the Macedonian Republic's supposed intention to form a "Greater Macedonia" by inciting insurrection and separation in the Greek province of Macedonia, may well then take advantage of events to settle the issue once and for all. Turkey, acting in defense of its Muslim brethren in Bosnia, and infuriated by the actions of its traditional rival Greece against the Macedonian Republic, could then scarcely be refrained from joining the fray.

The "Albanian issue", centered in Kosovo and overshadowed by the larger Serb-Bosnian tensions, is a powder keg waiting to explode. And when it does, the whole region will explode with it."—from our 1996 BILDERBERGER REPORT. [Almost three years later, these things are now happening!]

The Serbs, scenting the trap thus laid for them, have confined themselves to short, repressive police actions against the Kosovan Albanian population, none of which have been sufficient in duration, extent or intensity to provide the pretext necessary for the Bilderberger elite to rally Western European and American public support for a full-fledged military engagement of the Serbs. So their methodical preparation, financing and arming of the newly-revealed Kosovan Liberation Army has so far provided the Bilderbergers with no dividends at all . . . and the clock is running on their schedule. They need this war, and they need it soon.

Well, now they have it. The propaganda of the Australian, British and US Zionist press and television news is just that. Propaganda. This year the Bilderbergers will be meeting June 3-6, 1999, at the Caesar Park Penha Longa in Sintra, a remote resort about 40 miles from Lisbon, Portugal. Intruders are to be manhandled, handcuffed, gaoled, or if they resist and flee, shot.

In an article in the National Post, Isabel Vincent says "NATO matches Milosevic spin for spin".

"Vasilije Petkovic, the spokesman for the Serbian minister of information, writes in an e-mail yesterday from Belgrade: "Two days ago, Yugoslav air defense shot down two American choppers and one military aircraft inside the territory of Yugoslavia. Their task was to rescue those three American soldiers captured by the Yugoslav army. However, they are dead now. In these two choppers were all together 50 American soldiers and one fighting pilot."

Mr. Petkovic goes on to write that the Yugoslav army managed to recover the bodies of 19 of the 50 American soldiers and sent them to Greece, where they are scheduled to be clandestinely shipped back to the United States. Mr. Petkovic's theory is that the West will never hear of the incident because it is not in the interests of US president, Bill Clinton, to make it public, especially at a time when he appears to be losing the battle against Slobodan Milosevic, the Yugoslav president.

Of course, Mr. Petkovic's version of events may be pure misinformation and propaganda. But it is no more nonsensical and propagandistic than the Kosovo Liberation Army reporting last week that several of its leaders, including a signatory to the Rambouillet accords, were executed by Serb forces in Kosovo, only to have the signatory show up two days later on Serbian television. NATO has countered that the footage was a hoax.

And as nearly two weeks of NATO air strikes against Yugoslavia have shown, the United States and its NATO allies are even more adept than the Serbian Ministry of Information and the KLA at spinning a good tale.

The Mont Blanc road tunnel is the primary route for all heavy armour used to reinforce NATO's Southern flank. The recent fire which miraculously burned for 30 hours at 2,000

Degrees F. in the absence of an external oxygen supply has resulted in the tunnel being out of action for at least the next two months.

Reports and TV images show that the targets were CIVILIAN as well as military: "more then 10 schools were damaged, some were direct hits; 5 hospitals were badly damaged; the six hundred year-old monastery "Gracanica" and "Rakovica" monastery near Belgrade were damaged; more then 30 private houses were hit directly; and in a village near Leskovac, EVERY private house was damaged; a chemical plant near Belgrade and another near Zemun were hit, releasing toxic substances. Factories, civilian airports, the university hostel in Pristina, monuments and public buildings were damaged or destroyed."

What is NATO doing but demolishing property which will be snapped up for a song by the hidden enemy after the war, redeveloped and sold back to the locals at enormous profit, as happened after the bombing of Dresden, Hamburg and Tokyo. It is business as usual.

"There are also a great number of civilian casualties. On the first day of aggression over 100 civilians and more than 30 soldiers were killed." But to those who control NATO forces firing missiles from 800 miles away, these are "human cattle" ready for the cull. Mere "goiim" or Gentiles.

One internet report says, "Today, in Greece arrived bodies of 39 American soldiers killed during first week of war! They hit four F-117a, twelve F-16 aircraft, and killed more than 50 American soldiers. The Albanians are going away from their homes because they are afraid NATO bombs."

He continues, "US president Bill Clinton claims he is collecting evidence of possible war crimes on Kosovo". But surely Mr. Clinton is the war criminal. His own Congress condemn him for breaking the US Constitution and both NATO and UN regulations to bring plans of the Bilderbergers to fruition.

Let me ask you, who were behind the Crusades? It certainly wasn't Christians. Why should Christians want to liberate Jerusalem and Palestine from the Muslims or anybody else? What is Jerusalem to a Christian? It is nothing but a piece of geography associated with Biblical history. You might think that the Roman Catholic church were behind the Crusades, and so it would appear, but if you do a little research on the Knights Templars you will discover that behind the Crusades was a different entity acting under a different name and in a different occupation.

The Crusades wrought the deaths of thousands of nominal Christians including cream of the nobility, broke up estates, transferring their wealth to the international bankers or Knights Templars and the Roman church and resulted in the demise of feudalism.

Who were behind the Napoleonic Wars which resulted in 17 million Gentile deaths? It is equally well-documented that they were the planners, instigators and profiteers of World War I in which 9.5 million Gentile, mostly nominal Christians, died, and World War II which was responsible for the deaths of 52.25 million nominally Christian Gentiles.

Dr. Mahathir Mohammad, Prime Minister of Malaysia said, "If you want to put a stop, like in Kosova, you have to act properly. But people are being massacred in front of our eyes, and people with the power to stop the massacres have literally done nothing."

This is because "the people with the power to stop the massacres", are those who instructed President Bill Clinton and Britain's Tony Blair to order NATO to massacre innocent civilians (who are nominal Christians), are achieving their objectives.

Speaking of the one world government these men are forcing upon the world, Dr. Mahathir said, "In the past, we had leverage, because we can always opt to go to the other side in a bi-polar world. In a uni-polar world, you can no longer opt to go to the other side; there is only one side. If you don't submit to that side, then, of course, you will be punished. And we feel that we are being punished now." (For withstanding economic colonialism and IMF thuggery). (EIR January 22, 1999).

Almost all of the major wars and revolutions have been between the power of Rome, and the power of the non-Semitic anti-Semitic self-styled Jews—always working under a different name and under a different occupation, supporting and managing all parties to the conflicts they have crafted.

The illusion is that the Rothschilds are no longer players in the major world events, and the leaders of these self-styled Jews work in the name of the various monarchies, the government of Britain, America, Australia, or organizations of their creation such as the UN, NATO, even "Care Australia". It sounds as sweet as mother and apple pie, but it's the Devil! The goal is totalitarian world government, world depopulation, a return to serfdom and the worship of Lucifer.

"Governor Bush", says Texe Marrs in a recent Newsletter, "flew to Jerusalem and met privately with (City of London Asset) Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. He also had a confidential interview with Edgar Bronfman, head of the World Jewish Congress and Abe Foxman, head of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. The promise to all was to NOT promote any Christian agenda. Bush told Foxman he would never again publicly state that Jesus Christ is the only way to salvation, as he did in 1992. In return for Bush dropping Jesus Christ, Bronfman will now recruit many wealthy Jews to contribute to Bush's campaign. Local coverage points out that Bush raised some $6 million in one single month for his prepatory Presidential campaign."

If you are in the faith you will notice in events reported in this Newsletter how the conditions for the "squeeze" are coming in upon us illegally, but also by legislation and precept.
